Fall 21 Academic Updates and Graduation Initiative 2025 – Spring 21 Initiatives

Kate McCarthy, Dean of Undergraduate Education

- How much of our instruction will be in person in fall 2021?
  - Constraints
    - CDC guidelines still need to be followed
    - Chico State's primarily older/small classrooms pose additional challenges
    - Priority given to hands on instruction, international students required to participate in a minimum # of in person units, 100 & 200 level classes
  - Variability
    - Departments will help determine in person courses being offered
- Modes of Instruction
  - Many options they are continuing to review
  - Committed to NOT flip an online course to in person
- Student Success Initiative Spring 2021
  - Top challenges students have faced – communication and navigation of resources
    - Pronto Messaging App
      - Texting app for faculty to communicate with students
    - One Stop Student Resource Center
      - Landing page to help students find the resources is in the works

2021 General Education

Jason Nice, Curriculum Advisory Board Chair

- GE Pathways were postponed to fall 22; however, ethnic studies requirement implemented in fall 21 due to interim GE plan required by Chancellor's Office
  - This will result in 2 simultaneous GE plans during 2021-22 and 3 simultaneous GE plans during 2022-23
- Students with a catalog year 2020-21 and before:
  Current GE Program (Red Planning Sheet)
- For students with a catalog year 2021-22:
  Current GE Program, plus 3 units of ethnic studies, minus 3 units of social sciences (Blue Planning Sheet)
- For students with a catalog year 2022-23 and after:
  Revised GE Program, including revised GE Minors and Pathways, and incorporating any possible changes made by Academic Senate this semester
- Planning Sheet will eventually be replaced by a website (currently in development); for an example see http://www.fullerton.edu/undergraduate/general_education/
- Degree Progress Reports will update with catalog year and reflect A-E
