Graduation and Beyond

- Private Sector
  - Art Administrator
  - Editor
  - Estate or Art Publisher
- Government
  - Teacher or Professor
  - Art Librarian
- Non-Profits
  - Archivist
  - Conservationist or Preservationist
  - Museum Curator
  - Exhibit Designer
- Other Careers
  - Gallery Owner
  - Art Writer or Critic
  - Arts Organization Consultant

---

Student Success Map

B.A. in Art—Art History Option

Department of Art and Art History

---

Essentials for Every Semester

- Freshman
  - Learn where to find and how to use campus resources such as the Student Learning Center, Health Center, Academic Advising, Wellness Center and your faculty advisor.
  - Visit each of your instructors during their office hours. Make a point to get to know your professors.
  - Obtain your Major Academic Plan (MAP). It will enable you and your advisor to plan for each semester.
  - Begin lower division Studio Foundations and Art History courses.
- Sophomore
  - Know how to use your Degree Progress Report (DPR) in your Student Center. Go to Academic Advising for help.
  - Consider completing an interdisciplinary minor within your GE. Consult an advisor for help.
  - Obtain your Major Academic Plan (MAP). It will enable you and your advisor to plan for each semester.
  - Begin taking your Upper Division Art History courses.
- Junior
  - Apply for graduation one year in advance of your expected graduation date.
  - Review your involvement, leadership, and community service, recreational opportunities, on- or off-campus activities such as clubs, cultural resumes. Have you participated in on- or off-campus activities such as clubs, community service, recreational opportunities, musical, dramatic or cultural performances, lectures or forums?
  - Contribute to Contropposto, the journal of student research in art history.
- Senior
  - Confirm graduation progress with an Evaluator.
  - Complete a sufficient number of units each term (35–36 units) to graduate in four years. Some programs require more.
  - Complete your GE Foundation courses. Explore GE Pathways. Consider completing an interdisciplinary minor within your GE. Consult an advisor for help.
  - Finish all major requirements.
  - Review your involvement, leadership, and community service, recreational opportunities, on- or off-campus activities such as clubs, community service, recreational opportunities, musical, dramatic or cultural performances, lectures or forums?
  - Network with alumni, advisory boards, and other potential employers.

---

Get Good Advice

- Take the Right Classes
  - Visit the Student Activities Office and get involved with a club or organization — or start your own. Check out the Freshman Leadership Opportunity (FLO).
  - Read the Book in Common (BIC) and participate in BIC activities.
- Apply What You Learn
  - Visit the Student Activities Office and get involved with a club or organization — or start your own. Check out the Freshman Leadership Opportunity (FLO).
  - Read the Book in Common (BIC) and participate in BIC activities.
  - Select courses in GE that meet the diversity requirements (US Diversity and Global cultures).
- Connect with Peers
  - Consider a time management workshop in the Student Learning Center.
  - Use the Career Center to assess your interests, skills, and work values.
- Think Globally
  - Consider an internship course at the Janet Turner Print Museum.
  - Take a course in a foreign language. Consider completing an interdisciplinary minor within your GE. Consult an advisor for help.
- Prepare for Life After Graduation
  - Look into earning a certificate in Museum Studies. Consult Anthropology Department faculty for details.
  - Visit the Career Center to learn about career opportunities and résumé building.
  - Attend a career fair on campus, regularly scheduled early in fall semesters and several times during spring semesters.
  - Consult Anthropology Department faculty for details.