2004 ALL-CCAA HONORS

CAL STATE DOMINGUEZ HILLS' RACHELE McDONALD NAMED PLAYER OF THE YEAR

CHICO STATE's KIM SUTTON NAMED COACH OF THE YEAR

CAL POLY POMONA's JACQUELINE RAGUDOS NAMED FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. -- CAL STATE DOMINGUEZ HILLS forward Rachele McDonald has been named the 2004 California Collegiate Athletic Association Women's Soccer Most Valuable Player of the Year, as selected by the league head coaches. CHICO STATE's Kim Sutton received CCAA Coach of the Year honors, and CAL POLY POMONA forward Jacqueline Ragudos was named CCAA Freshman of the Year. Coaches also selected the All-CCAA First and Second Teams.

McDonald, a sophomore from Ventura, led the Toros to a 12-5-3 overall and 8-3-3 CCAA regular season record and the team's second straight berth in the CCAA Championship Tournament. She finished the regular season as the CCAA leader in goals scored (11), goals per game average (0.58), points (25) and points per game (1.32). Additionally, McDonald tied for the league lead in game winning goals with 4.

In her fourth year at Chico, Sutton guided the Wildcats to a 10-4-4 overall, including a 9-2-3 CCAA record, North Division title and the program's first CCAA Championship Tournament appearance.

Ragudos, a forward from San Diego, scored 6 goals and added 2 assists to help the Broncos finish 2nd in the South Division and secure their seventh straight CCAA Tournament appearance.
