Taking the Graduate Record Exam (GRE)? Attend weekly workshops, designed to prepare participants for the analytical writing portion of the exam. Workshops will provide an overview of the GRE structure and scoring system, effective test-taking strategies, and plenty of timed writing practice in a supportive learning environment. Workshops are facilitated by experienced writing tutors who have recently taken the GRE. Contact the Student Learning Center to sign-up and/or get more information!

Mondays, 5:30-7:00pm
(Dates: 2/15, 2/22, 2/29, 3/7)
Facilitated by Kevin Crittenden

OR

Wednesdays, 12:00-1:30pm
(Dates: 2/17, 2/24, 3/2, 3/9)
Facilitated by Eric Dunk

Weekly Topics:
Week 1: GRE Overview: In-depth look at prompts and guidelines
Week 2: Test-taking and writing strategies. Review of basic essay structure and theses
Week 3: Tackling the “Argument” essay requirement
Week 4: Tackling the “Issue” essay requirement
*Students are strongly encouraged to attend all four Mondays or all four Wednesday sessions. Different materials are covered each day and content will build on previous sessions.

Student Learning Center
Student Services Center – Room 340
(530)898-6839