The California State University International Programs

Developing intercultural communication skills and international understanding among its students is a vital mission of the California State University (CSU). Since its inception in 1968, the CSU International Programs has contributed to this effort by providing qualified students an affordable opportunity to continue their studies abroad for a full academic year. More than 15,000 CSU students have taken advantage of this unique study option. International Programs participants earn resident student status while they pursue full-time study at a host university or special study center abroad. The International Programs serves the needs of students in over 100 designated academic majors, affiliated with more than 70 recognized universities and institutions of higher education in 20 countries, the International Programs also offers a wide selection of study locales and learning environments.

Australia—Griffith University, Macquarie University, Queensland University of Technology, University of Queensland, University of Western Sydney, Victoria University;

Canada—the universities of the Province of Quebec including: Bishop's University, Concordia University, McGill University, Université Laval, Université de Montréal, Université du Québec system;

Chile—Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile (Santiago);

China—Peking University (Beijing);

Denmark—Denmark's International Study Program, the international education affiliate of the University of Copenhagen;

France—Institut des Études Française for Étudiants Étrangers, L'Académie d'Aix-Marseille (Aix-in-Provence), Universités de Paris I, II, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, XIII, the Institute of Oriental Languages and Civilizations, and University of Evry;

Germany—University Tübingen and a number of institutions of higher education in the Federal state of Baden-Württemberg;

United Kingdom—Bradford University, Bristol University, Hull University, Kingston University, Sheffield University, University of Wales, Swansea;

Zimbabwe—University of Zimbabwe (Harare). International Programs pays all tuition and administrative costs for participating California resident students to the same extent that such funds would have been expended to support similar costs for California residents.

Students are responsible for all personal costs, such as transportation, room and board, living expenses, and home campus fees. Financial aid, with the exception of Federal Work-Study, is available to qualified students.

To qualify for admission to the International Programs, students must have upper division or graduate standing at a CSU campus by the time of departure. Students at the sophomore level may, however, participate in the intensive language acquisition programs in France, Germany, and Mexico. California Community Colleges transfer students are eligible to apply directly from their community college. Students must also possess a current cumulative grade point average of 2.75 or 3.0, depending on the program for which they apply. Some programs also have language study and/or other course work prerequisites.

Information and application materials may be obtained from Dr. Robert M. Jackson at the International Studies Office, California State University, Chico, or by writing to the California State Polytechnic University, Pomona 3801 W. Temple Avenue, Pomona, CA 91768 Dr. J.
