California Science Project - Inland Northern

Next Generation Science Standards Foundation for STEM

Apply now for a two-year support and leadership program in NGSS curriculum and assessment.

2 Summers: 2016 & 2017 & Academic year support and leadership for NGSS

Dates: June 27-30, 2016 M-Th, 8 AM -4 PM

2017 dates: April 1, 2017 (no joke) and June 26-29, 2017

Grades K-12 (grade band specific foci) NGSS with CCSS Math and ELA Connections

- Learn about NGSS Practices, Concepts, Disciplinary Core Ideas
- Be Ready with Evidence
- Investigate new Assessments
- Access Integrated Engineering Curricula
- Check out Family Science and Engineering Material
- English Language Development through Science: STEM for All
- STEM Connections for Real World Applications

Combine and Stir with Vigor.

NGSS, Common Core, & Science Literacy:

A recipe for success

please see page 2 for program features:
Program Features:
Total program teacher stipend $1,200

A. Two Summer Institutes of 4 days each, both required.
   Summer #1 - June 27-30, 2016 - Stipend $400
   Summer #2 - June 26-29, 2017 - Stipend $400

B. Academic Year 2016/2017 Activities Stipend $400
   1. Substitute reimbursement provided for 1 day for lesson planning with NGSS and Common Core
   2. Participation in 17th Annual Science Teaching Symposium April 1, 2017
   3. Present two 2-hour sessions to your school/district on NGSS implementation

C. Continuing Education Credits (5 total available for full program) Two units of credit from CSU, Chico Continuing Education are available for purchase each summer at $60/unit, 1 for academic year.

D. Registration Fee = $500 per teacher per year. Tap into professional learning funding from your district through LCAP funds. Funds are there to support you and NGSS, the State adopted standards for Science. NGSS also includes STEM subjects and are officially part of the state standards.

For an application, see next page, or go to www.csuchico.edu/cmse

For questions email bmarcum@csuchico.edu

Application Deadline: May 1, 2016
(Acceptance notification to you by May 6, 2016)