The California State University, Chico Black Faculty and Staff Association welcomes you to our Black History Month celebration spotlighting the proud African American oral tradition!

This year, we present a series of events including the 10th annual Rent Party; a showing of the satirical film, Dear White People; World Wrestling Entertainment superstar and speaker David Otunga; and world-class spoken-word artist (and member of the Lady Wu Tang Clan) Suzi Q.

Event organizers hope that these events will create an open environment ripe for respectful but crucial discussion on stereotypes, institutionalized racism, and the African American experience in contemporary society.

Take a look below to see some of the scheduled events taking place all over campus this February.
