Game On!
LGBT Athletes and Allies
Changing Homophobia in Sports

Pat Griffin
Former Director of the Gay Lesbian Straight Education Network Sports Project, Changing the Game

DECEMBER 4, 2012
5P.M. | COLUSA HALL 100A

PAT GRIFFIN is the former Director of the Gay Lesbian Straight Education Network Sports Project, Changing the Game. Her research and writing interests focus on heterosexism/homophobia and sexism in education, lesbian and gay teachers and students, with a special interest in heterosexism/homophobia in athletics. Dr. Griffin is co-editor of Teaching For Diversity and Social Justice: A Sourcebook for Teachers and Trainers (2007). She is the author of Strong Women, Deep Closets: Homophobia and Lesbians in Sport (1998). She has appeared on ESPN, ABC Sports, and HBO Sports as an expert commentator on lesbian and gay issues in sport. In 2007 Dr. Griffin was named one of the top 100 sport educators in the United States by the Institute for International Sport.

For more information contact the Office of Diversity and Inclusion at (530)898-4764 or at diversityoffice@csuchico.edu