Homing Instincts: Afro-Cuban Poetry by Nancy Morejón

Tuesday, September 16
4:30-6 pm
BMU 210

Join us for a bilingual poetry reading and Q&A with world famous Afro-Cuban writer Nancy Morejón. According to Alice Walker, “Morejon’s poems remind us that all worlds are complex, complicated, dense. Sometimes it is only the poet’s breath that holds together the disparities, some of them achingly diverse.”

Reception to follow in the Cross Cultural Leadership Center—MLIB 172.

Brought to you by: Dept. of International Languages, Literatures & Cultures; Multicultural & Gender Studies, Dept. of English, Hispanic Heritage Month, &