

Chico State

African American Resource Handbook

2006-2007

Hotep! The information within these pages provides you with an introduction to the people who, places that, and things which may be of interest and/or assistance to you. Not in any way intended to be exhaustive or definitive, the directory offers but a small sample of the plethora of campus and community resources available to you. Each of you "holds" your own future, so get out there and discover all that Chico has to offer.

Chico State Black Faculty and Staff Association

Welcome to our University and our community! We are very pleased you are with us and very proud of all that you have accomplished to be here. We look forward to all that you will now achieve with us. We have high expectations for you, as you should have of your University. My best wishes for a successful start to your Chico State career and an ongoing contribution to the Chico State story.

President Paul Zingg

Student Life

Men of Honor

Founded in 2001, the Men of Honor is an African American community group based in Chico, CA, founded to bring African American students, faculty, staff, and community members together to assimilate into the Chico community.

The Pan African Union

The Pan African Union (PAU) is a student organization that offers support to people of African Descent at CSU, Chico. Through cultural, political, and academic awareness, we strive to promote unity among PAU members and black faculty and staff as well as with other student organizations on campus and in the Chico community. The PAU is open to all students regardless of race, creed, color, religious affiliation, or sexual orientation.

Women of Excellence

The purpose of the Women of Excellence is to motivate the personal growth and empowerment of all women. We also aim to educate the members of society about the effects of patriarchy in our society and to encourage unity, sisterhood, and excellence amongst all individuals. We strive toward mentorship, academic integrity, and community service.

Fraternities: Kappa Alpha Psi, Phi Beta Sigma

LIFT EVERY VOICE and SING

by James Weldon Johnson

Lift every voice and sing
Till earth and heaven ring
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us,
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun
Let us march on till victory is won.
