What Would You Do?
A Discussion and Film Series.

“Then they came for me and there was no one left to speak out for me.”
-Martin Niemöller

What would you do if you observed someone’s rights being violated? What if someone were being harassed or bullied, her or his life placed in jeopardy? In our own take on the TV series What would you do? this year’s Conversations on Diversity features a film and discussion series designed to stimulate discussion about the connection between diversity work and civic engagement by asking what would you do, what would move you to act?
