One Friday evening in June of 1969, a key event in queer history took place in Greenwich Village, New York. When yet another in a series of bar raids on gay establishments commenced at Stonewall Inn, members of the diverse queer community for the first time banded together in an historically radical response. The violence between community members and police continued for days and came to be known as the Stonewall Riots.

Join us for video clips and discussion about this spark that ignited a full-scale gay and lesbian rights movement.

Bring your lunch and join us!

Conversations on Diversity is a series of discussions sponsored by the Center for Multicultural and Gender Studies, the Gender and Sexuality Equity Center, and the Office of Diversity and Inclusion.
For more information contact the Office of Diversity and Inclusion at 898-4764.