Conversations on Diversity

White Privilege: What is it like to be more aware?

Wednesday, October 27
Noon -1pm
BMU 210

Do we dare become more aware of the many invisible social and structural supports that come with being white?

Dr. Mimi Bommersbach will lead us in a discussion about white privilege. We will explore why this topic makes most people so uncomfortable and end with tips on initiating respectful conversations and respectful connections with others.

Bring your lunch and join us!

Contact The Office of Diversity at 898-4764 for more information