Beyond Black and White;
A Mixed Race Experience

-----------------------------------
Facilitated by CC Carter and Dawn Frank
Student Life and Leadership and Educational Opportunity Program

Wednesday, October 2
NOON-1:00 PM
BMU 210

Census 2000 marked the first time that Americans could check multiple race boxes to describe their own heritage. The seven million people who did so reflected a dramatic national demographic shift. This conversation around mixed race issues is grounded in recognizing the complexities of race, heritage, and identity with a goal of creating supportive and inclusive communities for all people.

Bring your lunch and join us!

Conversations on Diversity & Inclusion is a series of discussions sponsored by the Center for Multicultural and Gender Studies, the Gender and Sexuality Equity Center, and the Office of Diversity and Inclusion.
For more information contact the Office of Diversity and Inclusion at 898-4764.