Recognize the unique needs of America’s veterans and their families through learning about ‘We Honor Veterans Program’, veteran specific end-of-life issues along with a broad overview of benefits provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs. You will also learn how to accompany and guide older veterans through their life stories and a peaceful ending.

This event is open to the public. We want to honor our older veterans and extend this invitation to them. Chico State students, faculty, staff, and community providers interacting with veterans are also invited to attend!

Speakers:
April Grossberger, MSW Intern Paradise Hospice
Teresa MC Clenathan, RN Paradise Hospice
Danielle Blaney, LLMSW U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Join us to learn about:
- Broad overview of the Department of Veterans Affairs
- Broad overview of benefits provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs
- Veteran specific end-of-life issues
- Hospice-Veteran partnerships (HVP)

Event sponsored by:

Continuing Education Unit (CEU) credits will be available upon request

ICOA works towards creating innovative partnerships between CSU, Chico and the North State Community that focus on education, research, scholarship, and community service related to aging and attending to the aging needs of our region.
