Conversations on Diversity & Inclusion

Across Cultures: Being a Man Then, Being a Man Now

Facilitated by Joe Wills, Public Affairs

Wednesday, April 10
Noon-1:00 PM
BMU 210

What is the meaning of masculinity for men at different ages and from different backgrounds? Has that meaning changed because of life experiences and the passage of time? How has being a man contributed to their desire to make the world a better place? These questions will be discussed by a panel of men at a Conversations on Diversity titled “Across Cultures: Being a Man Then, Being a Man Now.”
