

A special invitation to:

- school and district administrators
- math, science and technology instructors
- curriculum and instruction specialists
- school counselors

Informational Session CSU, Chico Engineering Academies

Please join the College of Engineering, Computer Science and Construction Management (ECC) to learn more about the new high school and middle school CSU, Chico Engineering Academies, Project Lead the Way, and how your district and school can participate in their exciting project and problem-based learning opportunities.

Thursday, November 15, 2007

8:30 am to 1:00 pm

California State University, Chico

Bell Memorial Union Room 210

(Corner of West 2nd & Chestnut Streets)

Complimentary parking, continental breakfast and lunch provided. Parking available on the 3rd floor of the parking garage; must arrive by 8:20 AM (West 2nd and Cherry Streets).

Presenters:

Dr. Michael Ward, Associate Dean, College of ECC; CSU, Chico

Dr. Duane Crum, State Leader, California Project Lead the Way

For registration materials and maps, visit:

http://www.ecst.csuchico.edu/Engineering_Academies.html

Questions? Please contact us.

- Teresita Curiel, Program Coordinator, 898-5799, tcuriel@csuchico.edu; or
- Dr. Mike Ward, 898-4888, mward@csuchico.edu.

