Section I (Certification)

41. CERTIFICATION — to be read and signed by all applicants to certify the accuracy of the information provided.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that I have provided complete and accurate responses to all the items on this application. I further certify that all official documents submitted in support of this application are authentic and unaltered records that pertain to me. I authorize the California State University to release any information submitted by me in this application for admission and any application for financial aid to any person, firm, corporation, association, or government agency to verify or explain the information I have provided or to obtain other information necessary for my application for admission and any application for administration of financial aid and in connection with any perjury proceedings. My signature certifies the accuracy and completeness of the information provided. I understand that any misrepresentation or omission may be cause for denial or cancellation of admission, transfer credit, or enrollment. I certify that so long as I am a student at this institution, I will advise the residence clerk if there is a change in any of the facts affecting my residence.

Signed at ________________________________

City and County __________________________ Applicant’s Signature __________________________ Date ____________

When claiming California residence and completing this form outside California, it must be subscribed and sworn to before a person authorized to administer oaths, such as a notary public.

Tuition Fee Refund Policy — Tuition Fees may be refunded only as authorized by Section 41802 of Title 5, California Code of Regulations. Details concerning the fees that may be refunded, the circumstances under which they may be refunded, and the appropriate procedure to be followed in seeking a refund may be obtained from the office of admission and records on each campus.

Use of the Social Security Number —

If you do not have a Social Security Number at the time you file the application, you may leave the item blank and the campus will assign a temporary number. However, you should obtain a Social Security Number, unless you are prohibited by law from doing so, and submit it to the university by the time you begin enrollment. Failure to furnish your correct Social Security Number may result in the imposition of a penalty by the Internal Revenue Service.

You are required to include your Social Security Number (or taxpayer identification number) on admission application forms to all CSU campuses pursuant to Section 41201, Title 5, California Code of Regulations. CSU campuses use the Social Security Number to identify your student records maintained in connection with your association with the campus and, if needed, to help collect debts owed the university. Your Social Security Number may be written on your application fee check to facilitate the processing of your fee payment. Also, the Internal Revenue Service requires the university to file information that includes the student’s Social Security Number and other information, such as the amount paid for qualified tuition, related expenses, and interest on educational loans. That information is used to help determine whether you, or a person claiming you as a dependent, may take a credit or deduction to reduce federal income taxes.

Section B

Social Security Number (SSN) - If you do not have a Social Security number at the time you file the application, you may leave the item blank and the campus will assign a temporary number. However, you should obtain a Social Security number, unless you are prohibited by law from doing so, and submit it to the university by the time you begin enrollment. Failure to furnish your correct Social Security number may result in the imposition of a penalty by the Internal Revenue Service.

You are required to include your Social Security number on admission application forms to all CSU campuses pursuant to Section 41201, Title 5, Code of California Regulations and Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code. CSU campuses may use the Social Security number to identify your student records maintained in your association with the campus and, if needed, to help collect debts owed the university. Also, the Internal Revenue Service requires the university to file information returns that include the student’s Social Security number and other information, such as the amount paid for qualified tuition, related expenses, and interest on educational loans. That information is used to help determine whether you, or a person claiming you as a dependent, may take a credit or deduction to reduce federal income taxes. In addition, this information is utilized to match your application to academic records, financial aid applications, and other documents. In addition, this information is utilized to match your application to academic records, financial aid applications, and other documents.

Section D

Questions 27, 28, & 29 -

The CSU collects voluntary demographic information regarding the sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression of students. (California Education Code section 66027)

- Providing this information is optional and is not required to move forward or to complete the CSU application for admission
- Your responses are kept private and secure. Limited campus staff will have access to this information
- The data will not be used for discriminatory purposes
- This information is used to provide services to all of our student populations
- This information is used for summary demographic reporting where no individual applicant’s identity will be revealed. In compliance with the CA Education Code, this summary information will be made available on CSU and campus websites and to the California Legislature

Section E

Questions 30 & 31 - If you are currently serving or have ever served in U.S. Military, submit a copy of your Joint Services Transcript or your Community College of the Air Force transcript for evaluation by the campus admissions office. If you are a Veteran or the dependent of a veteran who is eligible to receive GI Bill benefits and you believe you are eligible under Veterans Access, Choice, and Accountability Act of 2014 (Public Law 113-146), Section 702 for in-state tuition, please send a copy of your DD 214 and GI Bill Certificate of Eligibility (COE) to the campus Admissions Office to determine your status for a non-resident tuition waiver.
