CAMPUS INTERNATIONALIZATION

- Dr. Robert Cottrell, Department of History, has been awarded a Fulbright to teach in Russia during Spring 2009. He will serve as the Fulbright Nikolay V. Sivachev Distinguished Chair in U.S. History and American Studies this semester. He will be stationed at Moscow State University where he will teach a class on 20th century American radicalism.
- Campus Internationalization Forum, Feb 6, The School of Graduate, International, and Interdisciplinary Studies is pleased to invite the campus community to join in the process of Campus Internationalization. A Forum on Friday, Feb. 6, 2009 (12:30pm - 2:30pm, BMU 210) will further the process by soliciting campus-wide input on the development of a 5-year action plan, including such topics as study abroad, integrating international students into the campus and community, strengthening international components of the curriculum, faculty and staff development, and more. Feedback from faculty, staff, and students is essential in making this action plan both workable and visionary. We hope you will join us. Please contact Katherine Puntenev, 898-5408 for more information.

OPPORTUNITIES

- Learn Ancient Greek, CSU, Chico is now offering First-Semester Ancient Greek, a four credit hour course. Register online under GREK 101A section 1 (lecture and discussion) and section 2 (the laboratory component of the course) or through Continuing Education. The course meets Fridays, 2pm - 4:50pm in TALR 106, and the lab session is on Mondays 3pm - 3:50pm in TALR 207. In addition to learning the structure of the language and gaining facility in translation from Greek to English, the class will also discuss works of Aristophanes, Plato, Aeschylus, and Euripides in order to place the language in its cultural context. Please contact Jed Wyrick, Chair of Religious Studies and Coordinator of the Humanities Program at 898-6379.
- Faculty/Staff Spanish Lunch Hour, Learn Spanish during your lunch hour. The School of Graduate, International, and Interdisciplinary Studies (GIIS) is offering free conversational classes for all faculty, staff, and family of faculty and staff beginning the Spring 2009 semester. Classes will be every Monday and Wednesday from Noon to 12:50pm in Siskiyou Hall 103. Classes begin Feb. 3, 2009. For more information call (530) 898-5414 or email silptil@csuchico.edu.

The Global Connections Newsletter is issued twice-monthly by the School of Graduate, International, and Interdisciplinary Studies to keep the campus apprised of international activities and opportunities.
