

Cross-Cultural Exploration

Study Abroad

Two Courses in Theme C Thailand in June, 2009

Chiang Mai, Thailand

The ancient capital of Lanna is in the northwestern corner of Thailand along the Ping River, 500 miles north of Bangkok. It is in a valley with diverse crops among some of the highest mountains in Thailand.

Courses

ENGL 353—Multicultural Literature
SOC 354—Inter-Cultural Contacts

Cost

- Course fee: $2,850 (includes lodging, and instructional expenses)
- Airfare: $1,500
- Personal expenses (for food and other): $350

Program

- Earn six units of credit and fulfill two GE course requirements.
- Study and travel for over four weeks in Northern Thailand.
- Engage in cultural programs.
- Participate in Thai language instruction.
- Take a cooking class.
- Employ your skills to help in a service project.
- Participate in a village homestay.

Financing

All government-sponsored financial aid offered to the student applies, including Pell Grants, Cal Grants, and loans.

Application Deadline

March 27, 2009

Application Procedure

- Complete application package
- Attend mandatory meetings
- Get passport

Applications Available

- Course info website: chiangmai2009.wetpaint.com
- Photos from previous trips: www.csuchico.edu/~altier

Important Dates

- March 27: application due
- May 1: remainder of fees due
- Early May: mandatory meeting
- May 27: Fly to Thailand!
- June 30: Courses end