WHAT’S EXPECTED OF ME?

In Honors in GE, you take 24 of your 48 units of GE as Honors courses. During the first two years, you can take either four seminars or a course entitled Honors Survey of Civilization and one of the seminars. This will constitute half of your honors work. In the upper division you choose 2 seminars and complete a year-long honors thesis/project. Typically, you will take one honors course each semester. Finally, to maintain good standing in the Honors Program and to graduate with the distinction of Honors in GE, you are expected to maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.30.

WHAT ARE HONORS CLASSES LIKE?

Honors classes are multidisciplinary and team-taught and involve students with small group projects, independent work, and student presentations. Honors students come prepared for class and contribute to group discussions. Honors classes provide a learning space that is active and engaging for student and faculty.

In addition to fully meeting its obligation of nondiscrimination under federal and state law, CSU, Chico is committed to creating a community in which a diverse population can live and work in an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the rights and sensibilities of each individual, without regard to economic status, ethnic background, veteran status, political views, sexual orientation, or other personal characteristics or beliefs.
WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

• Greater involvement in the intellectual, cultural and social life of the University
• Working with enthusiastic professors and motivated students
• Honors House for some first-year freshmen
• Curriculum that is unique to the Honors Program
• Personalized academic advising and guidance
• Recognition at graduation with a medallion
• Recognition on your diploma and on your transcripts

AM I ELIGIBLE?

Coming to Chico State as a first-semester freshman, you should have a high school GPA of 3.5 OR an SAT score of 1200 (math, reading & writing scores) OR an ACT composite score of 27 to apply to the Honors Program. Transfer students qualify to apply with a cumulative GPA of 3.3 or above. Students not meeting these criteria may be considered for admission to the program, but on an individual basis.

WHAT IS HONORS HOUSE?

The Honors Program has its own freshman housing! The Honors Houses will be moving to Sutter Hall in Fall 2017. Sutter Hall is the newest residence hall on campus. More information can be found on the University Housing webpage at www.csuchico.edu/housing/housing-options/campus-housing/sutter.shtml. Honors students take their classes seriously and still enjoy all Chico has to offer. Life in the Honors House is a wonderful way to balance scholarship and an active social life.

"The Honors Program has provided me with a high-quality education and the opportunity to make real and lasting friendships, and it has given me inspiration about who I want to be and how I want to affect the world I live in."

Sara Haskell, Linguistics & International Studies
