Fall 2012 Deadline: 5:00pm on Monday November 5th, 2012***

Attach the following to this application form:

1. Description: Provide a narrative description of your research explaining: a) the nature of the project, b) the methods you will employ, c) the expected benefits that you will receive from the activity, d) the role your advisor will play in the project, and e) the possibility that your project may lead to a professional presentation of your results. Your narrative description should be no longer than three typewritten pages, double-spaced. Also include a budget (separate page is ok) for the complete project and specify the costs you will incur. Proposals that are clear, well-written and complete are the ones most likely to be funded. If your cumulative GPA is below 3.25 you must explain on a separate sheet at the end of your narrative why your situation is extraordinary and merits waving the minimum grade point requirement.

2. Faculty or Staff Advisor Statement: Advisors should focus on the importance of the project and its impact on the student. The statement of endorsement must also indicate the role to be played by the advisor and the prospect for a professional presentation of the project results. Endorsement should be as informative as possible within the scope of a single, typed page on department letterhead.
