University Housing Appeal Process

If the student is not in agreement with the decision made through the conduct process the student may appeal the outcome. Students must write and submit the appeal on their own behalf. Appeals written and submitted by an attorney will not be accepted.

The student will be granted an appeal based upon meeting the criteria of at least one of the following:

1) New information.
2) Procedural rights violation.
3) Sanction dissimilar with similar cases.
4) Bias on the part of the Housing conduct officer.

The student may appeal the decision of their informal hearing with a Residence Community Coordinator by submitting an appeal from their campus email account to the Coordinator for Student Conduct and Community Responsibility within three (3) working days of receiving their hearing outcome letter. Appeal decisions and sanctions handed down by the Coordinator for Student Conduct and Community Responsibility are final except drugs, alcohol, relocation, and termination.

The student may appeal the decision of their informal hearing with the Coordinator for Student Conduct and Community Responsibility by submitting an appeal from their campus email to the Executive Director of University Housing and Residence Life within three (3) working days of receiving their hearing outcome letter. The Executive Director's decision for termination from Housing is final.
