Getting Settled in Chico

Things to Do:

Local Newspapers
There are many events happening around Chico. The Chico News and Review and the Chico Enterprise Record are the two local newspapers. Both give information on local events in the paper and on their websites. Learn about on-campus events through The Orion (a student-run Chico State newspaper) email announcements, notice boards around campus, the University Box Office (a ticket office), etc.

The Chico Enterprise Record
The ER is the daily newspaper for the greater Chico area. The classifieds section of the ER is a good source for apartment and house rental information.
Website: www.chicoer.com

The Chico News & Review
The Chico News & Review, a free weekly paper, which comes out on Thursdays. The detailed events calendar lets you know what’s going on in town.
Website: www.newsreview.com/chico/home

The Orion at Chico State is an award-winning weekly college newspaper put out by the Department of Journalism. Full content, including event calendar, can be found online at: www.theorion.com.

Things to Do In and Around Chico
- Go to Bidwell Park
- Bike anywhere. Chico is known as a city great for biking. Chico Bike Maps
- Attend Chico State sports events
- See a film at the Pageant Theater on cheap night (Mondays)
- Go to an event through Chico Performances at Laxson Auditorium
- Tour the Bidwell Mansion or other historical Chico buildings
- Shop at the Farmers Market
  - Year-round: on Saturday mornings at East 2nd & Wall St
  - Spring/Summer: Thursday nights, downtown
- Come to OIE at SSC 440 for more fun ideas!