

INSTRUCTIONALLY RELATED ACTIVITIES STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT FOR OFF-CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

All Instructionally Related Activities (IRA) programs are representing the University at all times, and as such, are governed by the Code of Conduct regulations for student's behavior as outlined in Section 41301 of Title 5, California Code of Regulations.

IRA Student Team Member Responsibility

IRA student team/program members are responsible for the conduct of their team members during any off-campus activity.

Failure to adhere to the California Code of Regulations or the IRA Code of Conduct may result in university sanctions of individual team members, loss of program funding, and/or program suspension.

IRA student participants must adhere to Section 41301 of Title 5, California Code of Regulations pertaining to alcohol and or illegal drugs while serving as a representative of the team and the university during all approved off-campus activities.

Actions that may result in loss of the right to participate in an IRA program include, but are not limited to:

- Any behavior that violates Section 41301 of Title 5, California Code of Regulations and results in placement on disciplinary probation and above by the Office of Student Judicial Affairs
- Academic performance that results in placement on academic probation, or a GPA below 2.0
- Violation of the campus Alcohol and Drug Policy:
