

Come and support PCTN this May, join us throughout the month at events that help support the center and all that it does for the community.

- ❖ On May 8 at 5:30 the Grand Reopening of PCTN should be an evening filled with community spirit that will highlight the changes made to the center, a book sale, and a ribbon cutting ceremony hosted by Paradise Chamber of Commerce.
- ❖ May 10 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. the annual Chocolate Fest will be held at Terry Ashe Park. PCTN will have a booth selling brownies, cookies, free trade coffee and milk.
- ❖ Also on May 10, the spring fundraiser concert supporting PCTN and featuring Norton Buffalo will be held at the Paradise Performing Arts Center. PCTN will be hosting a Silent Auction at this event. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. for Silent Auction. Show begins at 7:30. Tickets are $25 general seating, $40 preferred seating, $55 preferred with after party. All spring events PCTN is involved in provide support for the center and the community.

PCTN strives to make our community a safe place for all by providing direct services to victims of intolerance; bullying prevention programs for youth; support for minorities; and cross cultural activities for all ages.
