Tehama County's greatest Indian fighter Hiram Augustus Good died at Tehama May 1, 1870 in his 34th year. He was Tehama County's most famous Indian fighter, In one foray against the Indians, the parents of a young boy were killed. He brought the boy back to live with him. Later the Indian boy killed him. In the 1956 Red Bluff Daily News centennial "Three highwaymen who robbed the Susanville stage in July 1867 were run down at Mt Lassen by Captain Hi Good and a party of 5. One of the three robbers was shot. The other surrendered. Herman (Hi) Good was one of the greatest of the northern Calif hunters, teachers, trackers and Indian fighters. He was a native of Ohio and came west an at early age. A fter several skirmishes with Indians, a large party of them were cornered in Mill Creek Canyon in August of 1865. All were killed and the Indian wars were in this area ended. Hi employed a 12-year-old Indian boy named Ned as a herder. Not long after, Ned shot his employer on March 4, 1870, age 34 years. He is buried at Tehama.
