Born Indiana May 27, 1818 -- ? Nee Ferris died Battle Creek August 21, 1908 at the home of Perry Groves. "Grandma" McManus, according to the Daily Peoples Cause of Feb 19, 1908: "Shasta County can lay claim to one of the most aged persons now living, Mrs McManus of Battle Creek is supposed to be not less than 135 years old and possible 140. She is known to Stephen Eldred of Anderson, William Asbury of Battle Creek and Mr Benton of Shingletown, all of whom are men over 75 years of age, as having come with her husband to this county from Oregon with a family by the name of Dalton. They settled near Millville in 1858, says the Redding Searchlight. Mrs Dalton and Mrs McManus were about the same age, so they at that time claimed, and both very aged women. Mrs Dalton died about 40 years ago, claiming to be 100 years old at the time of her death. Mrs McManus has lost all powers of remembrance, concerning herself. She does not know her age, maiden name or where she was born. Her children are all dead. Her youngest daughter who came here with her many years ago, passed away from the effects of old age. A short time ago, the Board of Supervisors was petitioned to make provision for the care of this aged woman, and on the statement of Mrs Eldred and others that she was at least 135 years old, the Board at once complied with their request."
