Graduation and Beyond

Public/Private Education
- Teacher - Elementary School
- Teacher - Middle School
- Teacher - Bilingual Education
- Teacher - Special Education
- After School Program Director

Private Sector Careers
- Retail Business
- Legal Professions
- Travel and Tourism

Government Careers
- Librarian
- Social Services
- State and Local Agencies
- Student Services Advisor

Non-Profit Careers
- Community Resources
- Management

Prepare for Life After Graduation

Apply to Graduate school and the Bilingual Credential program of your choice. Apply to the credential program of your choice. Apply to Graduate Studies.

Take the CBEST or CSET: Writing Skills Test.

Make a point to get to know your professors. Each of your instructors during their office hours.

If you need to confirm your class schedule and that all adds and drops have been processed as you expected.

Know how to use your Degree Progress Report (DPR) in your Student Center. Meet with the Bilingual Coordinator.

Visit the Career Center Hiring Fair in the Spring. Attend the Career Center’s Education Fair in the Spring.

Meet deadlines to register, pay fees, and apply for financial aid.

Check your Liberal Studies advisor. Go to Liberal Studies Program Office for help.

Complete a sufficient number of units each term (15–16 units) to graduate in four years. Some programs require more.

Check your Student Center prior to registration for registration holds and updating your personal info.

Complete a sufficient number of units each term (15–16 units) to graduate in four years. Some programs require more.

Visit the Career Center to learn about career opportunities and résumé building.

Further study and credentials.

See the Career Center's Education Fair in the Spring. Attend the Career Center’s Hiring Fair in the Spring.

Obtain your Major Academic Plan (MAP). Follow through with your Map. Check out the course sequence on your MAP. If you need to complete them in your first year.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Review your involvement, leadership, and cultural resumes. Have you participated in on- or off-campus activities such as clubs, community service, recreational opportunities, musical, dramatic or cultural performances, lectures or forums?

Participate in National Student Exchange, Camp Adventure, or Study Abroad, if in a Spanish speaking country, explore a Spanish minor or major.

Consider a time management workshop in the Student Learning Center.

Take the CBEST or CSET: Writing Skills Test.

Take ENGL 333. Take CBEST or CSET: Writing skills test. Begin Science, Math and Spanish course sequence.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Consider joining professional organizations such as the Student California Teachers Association, Kappa Delta Pi, or the National Science Teachers Association.

Review your involvement, leadership, and cultural resumes. Have you participated in on- or off-campus activities such as clubs, community service, recreational opportunities, musical, dramatic or cultural performances, lectures or forums?

Participate in National Student Exchange, Camp Adventure, or Study Abroad, if in a Spanish speaking country, explore a Spanish minor or major.

Explore Study Abroad opportunities. Attend an info meeting they offer every semester. Consider Camp Adventure opportunities.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Complete a sufficient number of units each term (15–16 units) to graduate in four years. Some programs require more.

Check your Student Center prior to registration for registration holds and updating your personal info.

Check your Student Center prior to registration for registration holds and updating your personal info.

Check your Student Center after each semester for your grades and academic standing. If your GPA drops below a 2.0, consult a Liberal Studies Advisor.

FRESHMAN

Learn where to find how to use campus resources such as the Student Learning Center, Health Center, Wellness Center and your Liberal Studies Advisor and Peer Advisor (PALS). Visit each of your instructors during their office hours. Make a point to get to know your professors.

Obtain your Major Academic Plan (MAP). Follow the course sequence on your MAP. If you need preparatory math and/or English courses, complete them in your first year.

Visit the Student Activities Office and get involved with a club or organization - or start your own. Check out the Freshman Leadership Opportunity (FLO).

Read the Book in Common (BIC) and participate in BIC activities.

SOPHOMORE

Know how to use your Degree Progress Report (DPR) in your Student Center. See your Liberal Studies advisor. Go to Liberal Studies Program Office for help.

Take ENGL 333. Take CBEST or CSET: Writing skills test. Begin Science, Math and Spanish course sequence.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Review your involvement, leadership, and cultural resumes. Have you participated in on- or off-campus activities such as clubs, community service, recreational opportunities, musical, dramatic or cultural performances, lectures or forums?

Participate in National Student Exchange, Camp Adventure, or Study Abroad, if in a Spanish speaking country, explore a Spanish minor or major.

Take CSET subtest 101: (Reading-Language Arts) and subtest 203: (Mathematics and Science). Research credential program options.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Take CSET subtest 101: (Reading-Language Arts) and subtest 203: (Mathematics and Science). Research credential program options.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.

Consider volunteering in a classroom or children’s program. Check out CAVE in the BMU.