

- 4 Reference Desk - librarians are available to assist in finding information and using the library.
 - 5 ReSEARCH Stations - The Meriam Library ReSEARCH Station <http://www.csuchico.edu/library> is our gateway to the Internet providing access to the Library catalog, periodical and information databases, and library services. Portal user name and password is required to gain computer access.
 - 6 Reference Collection - general and subject specific encyclopedias, dictionaries, almanacs, directories and other reference tools. These materials are for in-house use and may not be checked out.
 - 7 Law Reference Collection - U.S. and California statutes and case law, law dictionaries and legal reference books.
 - 8 Media & Microforms - videos, DVDs, CDs, audiocassettes (can be checked out for seven days), microforms of newspapers, journals, books and government documents. Equipment to use these resources is available. Microforms are library use only. There is also a small collection of current newspapers.
 - 9 Rapid Graphics Copy Center - copy machines and FAX services. The copy center accepts cash, ATM and credit cards, and Wildcat I.D. cards.
 - 10 Popular Collection - popular books (i.e. best sellers).
 - 11 Periodicals - Beyond the bridgeway are current and older bound periodicals. (Bound periodicals are the individual issues of magazines or journals bound in hard covers that look like books.) Periodicals are shelved in call number order and cannot be checked out, but you can photocopy articles.
- At the far east side of the floor are Group Study Rooms for collaborative study. Groups have priority. No reservations are required. MLIB 259 and 260 are net study rooms.*
- 12 Map Collection - political, topographical, vegetation, soil and many other types of maps.
 - 13 Theses - CSU, Chico Masters Theses collection (can be checked out).
 - 14 Interlibrary Services <http://www.csuchico.edu/library/ill/ill.html> - Requests for books and articles from other institutions can be made via the Internet. Articles are delivered electronically and books can be picked up at the Circulation desk on the first floor.

Continue to walk toward the elevator or walk back to the stairs and proceed to the third floor.

As you step off the elevator, walk to the left. If you used the stairs, go to the elevator area to resume the tour.

- 15 Main Collection - The third floor is for silent study only. To your left is the beginning of the Main Collection. These books are arranged in call number order and may be checked out at the Circulation desk on the first floor.

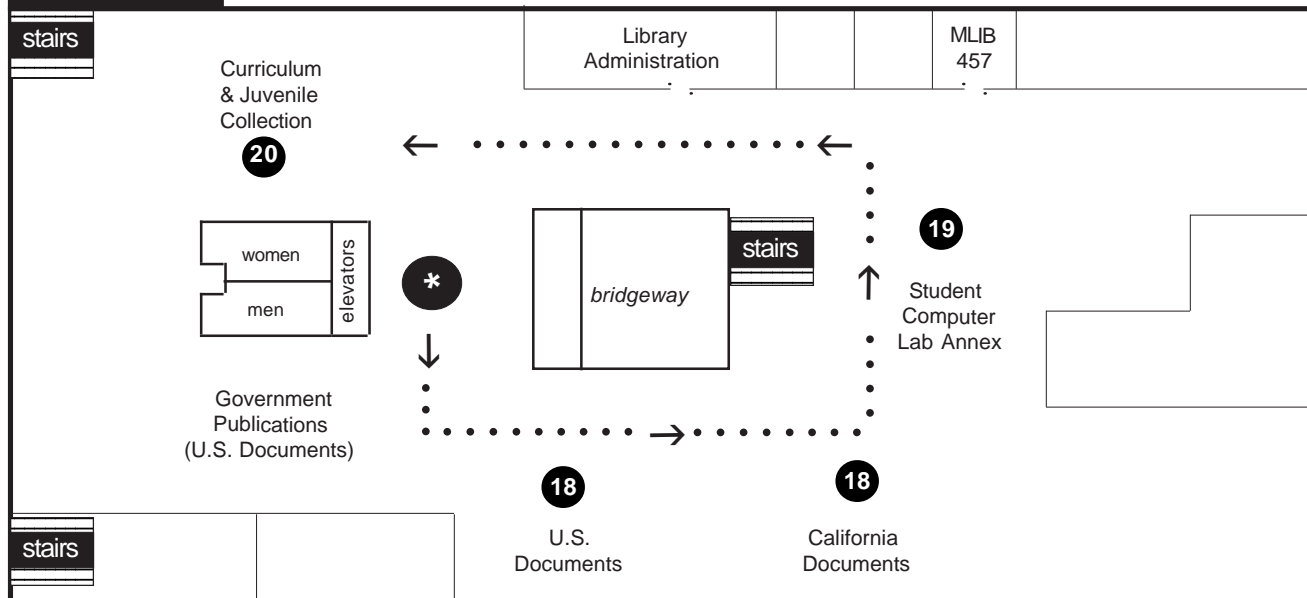

Turn to the right and walk through the bridgeway and see more of the Main Collection (15). On the far end of the Main Collection (15) on the east side of this floor are group study rooms which can be used for collaborative study (MLIB 354 and 363 are net study rooms).

- 16 Folios - beyond the Main collection are the “Folios, X-Folios and XX-Folios.” Folios are oversized books and can be checked out at the circulation desk on the first floor.
- 17 Special Collections - Beyond the Folios is Special Collections which contains local history materials, University Archives, and the Northeastern California (N.E. Cal) collection. These materials are library use only.

Walk toward the elevators. Either take the elevator to the fourth floor or use the stairs.

Fourth Floor

As you step off the elevator turn to the right.

18 Government Publications - These materials are published by the Federal and California state governments and all of their departments, agencies, and committees. Turn to the left and you will walk by more U.S. documents and then State of California government documents. Most of the items here can be checked out at the circulation desk on the 1st floor. To search for documents, use the Library Catalog on the ReSEARCH Station.

19 Student Computer Lab Annex - This is an extension of the 1st floor student computer lab.

Walk toward the bridgeway to the stacks.

20 Curriculum & Juvenile Collection - These materials are used to support the teacher education program. The collection includes K-12 textbooks, study aids and guides. It also includes books for children and young adults.

This concludes the tour. If you have any questions, please ask at the second floor reference desk or the circulation desk on the first floor.
