MA in Chicana/o Studies, CSU Northridge

The Master's of Arts in Chicana/o Studies is designed to develop advanced studies in the Social Sciences, the Arts, Education, Community Studies, the Humanities, and other areas related to the Chicana/o experience in the United States.

The M.A. in Chicana/o Studies Prepares Students for Careers In:

- Teaching in levels up to and including community college and selected universities
- Preparation for a Ph.D. in Chicana/o Studies, Cultural Studies, Ethnic Studies, American Studies, Public Administration, Political Science, History, Sociology, Psychology, and law school
- Professions in non-profit administration and local government
- Professions in academic counseling/recruitment services

For questions about the program, please contact the Graduate Coordinator:

Dr. Yarma Velázquez-Vargas
Office: Jerome Richfield 151B
Email: yarma.velazquez@csun.edu
Phone: (818) 677-3314