2007-2009

Revised: 06/01/2008

Welcome!

We are pleased that you have decided to study Nutrition and Food Sciences (NFSC) at CSU, Chico! This handbook is designed to assist you in planning your coursework and answer some questions you may have. It contains general information about our program such as our Mission Statement and Goals, our accreditation status, how to declare the major and how to find out which NFSC faculty member is your advisor. Also provided is information about university policies and procedures that provide guidance in your academic career at CSU, Chico. The handbook concludes with a section that addresses frequently asked questions (FAQ's).

This handbook is not intended to replace regular appointments with your advisor. Rather, it is meant to be a ready source of information for your use. Keep it handy. You will find that it answers a lot of your questions.

References to the University Catalog in this handbook are in the 2007-2009 Catalog. (<http://www.csuchico.edu/catalog/cat07>). However, if you enrolled prior to 2007 you may use an earlier catalog to guide you in your course of study. Your right to select an earlier edition of the catalog is described on p. 124.

You can find a copy of the NFSC Handbook along with a variety of additional information available on the NFSC home page <http://www.csuchico.edu/nfsc>.
