Assistant Professor Position
Development Economics
Department of Economics
College of Behavioral and Social Science

CSU, Chico is committed to enriching the educational environment of its students. The Department of Economics seeks candidates whose teaching, research, or service has prepared them to contribute to our campus commitment to diversity and inclusion in higher education. We now proudly hold HSI designation.

The Position: Assistant Professor Tenure-track
Salary: Salary commensurate with education and experience.
Closing Date: The application period ends December 3, 2018.

How to Apply: All applicants must submit: a completed application form (available at http://www.csuchico.edu/oup/unit_3_app.pdf), CV, cover letter, complete set of transcripts, evidence of teaching quality, a recent research paper, and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Pete Tsournos, Search Committee Chair; Economics Department, CSU Chico; 400 West 1st Street; Chico, CA 95929. Please direct any questions to ptsournos@csuchico.edu.

Qualification Details:

The Position: The Economics department is searching for a tenure track assistant professor to start August 21, 2019. California State University, Chico is seeking faculty who are competent in their field, collaborative with colleagues and staff, and committed to student success.

Minimum Qualifications: The minimum education requirement for appointment to this position is a Ph.D. in economics or related field with a specialization in Development Economics. Degree must be conferred at time of application.

Preferred Qualifications: Some teaching experience expected; evidence of effective teaching should include teaching evaluations and letters of recommendation. Teaching experience or promise with multicultural students preferred.

Responsibilities: This tenure-track position carries responsibilities in the areas of teaching principles and intermediate macroeconomics or microeconomics, development economics, statistics, econometrics, and either an area studies or upper division course reflective of the applicant’s secondary field; scholarship (academic research or grants); and service. Teaching assignments are based upon qualifications of the individual and the needs of the department.

The Department: The Economics Department at CSU, Chico is a small department with a strong undergraduate program. There is an emphasis on quality teaching and the small size of upper division classes provides individualized instruction for students in the major. For more information about the university, college, and department, you can visit our website at: http://www.csuchico.edu/econ/.

CSU, Chico is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, disability, marital status, or protected veteran status and only employ individuals authorized to work in the U.S. For disability-related accommodations, please call the ADA Coordinator at (530) 898-5959.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

An annual security report disclosing crime statistics for California State University, Chico can be obtained by contacting the Chico State University Police Department (530-898-5555) or by visiting: www.csuchico.edu/up/clery_report.shtml

The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 (revised July 21, 2017) as a condition of employment.

All positions are contingent on funding.