California State University, Chico

Spring 2013
Department of Political Science
Teaching Associate Program

The Department of Political Science offers up to six teaching associate positions to graduate students (pending final budget approval) to assist with the large Political Science 155 courses. Typically, three or four continuing students and one or two new graduate students (assuming qualified applicants) are selected for the fall semester; continuing students are selected for the spring semester.

Teaching Associates are responsible for leading weekly discussion sections, attending the lectures, grading, participating in the university’s Town Hall Program, and other course-related activities. Teaching Associates must also attend a weekly graduate seminar and receive 1-3 units of graduate-level credit for the course. Teaching Associates work approximately 10 hours per week and are paid approximately $2,970 for the semester (6 paychecks).

Minimum Qualifications and Hiring Criteria:

Knowledge and Abilities:
Knowledge of the subject matter of the discipline in which assigned. Ability to relate well to others within the academic environment and ability to instruct and evaluate students. Exception to the minimum eligibility qualifications may be granted at the sole discretion of the university.

Experience:
For the initial appointment, evidence of satisfactory achievement in previous academic work. For subsequent appointment, evidence of satisfactory progress toward completion of the degree.

Education:
Equivalent to completion of the requirements for a bachelor's degree and concurrent admission to or enrollment in a graduate degree program of the university that is related to the discipline to which the individual is assigned.

CSU, Chico is required by federal law to hire only persons authorized to work in the United States. CSU, Chico does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, age, or disability. Qualified applicants with a disability will receive reasonable accommodation during any phase of the selection process, provided such request is made to the Human Resources Office at least five working days in advance.
