Assistant Professor Position
Department of Psychology
College of Behavioral and Social Sciences

CSU, Chico is committed to enriching its educational environment and its culture through the diversity of its staff, faculty, students, and administrators. Persons with interest and experience in helping to set and achieve goals relative to diversity and inclusion are especially encouraged to apply.

The Position: The Department of Psychology is searching for a tenure track assistant professor to start August, 2017. California State University, Chico is seeking faculty who are competent in their field, collaborative with colleagues and staff, and committed to student success. The position is contingent on funding.

Minimum Qualifications: The minimum education requirement for appointment to this position is a Ph.D. or Psy.D. from an accredited Marriage and Family Therapy Program or an accredited Counseling or Clinical Psychology program. Candidates nearing completion of the doctorate may be considered; however, the doctorate must be complete prior to the beginning of the academic year (August, 2017). CSU, Chico is a Hispanic Serving Institution. Achieving HSI status is an important milestone in our progress to create a more inclusive learning community that recruits, enrolls, supports and graduates a diverse and high-quality student population, therefore we also require for this position a demonstrated ability/interest in working in a multi-ethnic and multi-cultural environment. Requirements also include the ability and interest in supervising MFT interns and master’s theses and analytical reviews; training and experience providing supervision to therapists; and CA licensure or intention to seek it as a Marriage and Family Therapist, Psychologist, or Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor.

Preferred Qualifications: Preferred qualifications include evidence of the potential for excellence in college instruction; providing therapy and/or supervision experience with adult, adolescent, child and/or family clients; the ability to teach individual, group and/or family practicum via one-way mirror supervision; the ability to teach theories of family therapy; the ability to teach professional, ethical, and legal issues in counseling; the ability to teach mental health recovery and wellness; accomplishments in research and scholarly activities; and a record of or potential for grant development.

Responsibilities: This tenure-track position carries responsibilities in the areas of teaching (primarily graduate courses and one or more courses in the undergraduate program), scholarship (develop a successful research program; seek external funding) and service. Teaching assignments are based upon qualifications of the individual and the needs of the department.

Salary: Salary commensurate with education and experience.

The Department: The Psychology Department (http://www.csuchico.edu/psy) consists of 17 tenured/tenure-track faculty members, 21 lecturers, and three office staff members. The department has faculty in diverse areas of study. There are approximately 1000 majors, 100 minors, and 100 graduate students. The department offers a BA in Psychology and MA and MS degree programs for preparing students for MFT licensure, school psychology, doctoral study and other professions. The Psychology Department is a part of the College of Behavioral and Social Sciences (http://www.csuchico.edu/bss).

Closing Date: Review of applications will begin on November 7, 2016. Completed applications received after that date may be considered.

How to Apply: Recruitment details can be found at https://jobs.csuchico.edu/postings/3876 Complete online applications will include: CV, graduate transcripts (unofficial acceptable), teaching philosophy statement, summary of teaching evaluations, and copies of example publications (to be submitted online via link above); three letters of recommendation must be submitted to the department chair at the address listed below.
