

RESUME

James Douglas Anderson
25 Gideon Lane, Chico, California 95973
(530) 345-3429

EDUCATION

HARVARD UNIVERSITY Cambridge, Massachusetts

Doctor of Education in Teaching, Curriculum, and Learning Environments, 1990.
Dissertation: "The Morally-Educated Person: John Dewey, Richard Peters, Lawrence Kohlberg, and the Aims of Moral Education."

PACIFIC SCHOOL OF RELIGION Berkeley, California

Master of Arts in Religious Studies, 1971
Concentration in History and Phenomenology of Religion
Thesis: "Chuang Tzu and Koheleth"

STANFORD UNIVERSITY Stanford, California

Bachelor of Arts in English: Creative Writing, 1966
Minor in philosophy and religion

Non-degree study includes one term's residence at Pendle Hill, a Quaker study center; language study at the Chinese University of Hong Kong; and language and cultural studies at University of Hawaii Peace Corps training program.

EXPERIENCE

TEACHING: LECTURER

California State University, Chico, California

Taught courses in religious studies, humanities, personal and social values as part time and full time faculty member, religious studies, and philosophy departments (1972-1977, 1984, 1988-present).

VISITING LECTURER

University of Pittsburgh/Semester at Sea

Taught religious studies courses for a one semester shipboard international education program visiting ports in South America, Africa, and Asia (1996).

LECTURER

Chinese University of Hong Kong

Taught courses in Asian religion, western religions, religious studies methodology, and environmental studies as member of religious studies faculty (1977-1980).

TEACHING FELLOW

Harvard Graduate School of Education

Counseled students on research projects, led discussions, made classroom presentations, evaluated student work in courses in philosophy of education, adolescent development, teacher supervision, and multicultural education (1985-87). Supervised, counseled, and evaluated high school student teachers in English and history (1986-87).

SCHOOL TEACHER

Berkeley, California Head-Start (observer/aide)

Storybook Nursery School, Chico, California

Taught pre-school children, developed pre-school curriculum materials and parent education material and program (1971-1972).

St. Michael's School, Kobe, Japan

Taught English as a Second Language to high school students; additionally taught adult class at Amagasaki City Hall, private students at Lilly Corporation (1969)

Lok Yuk Secondary School, Sabah, Malaysia

Taught courses in math, history, and English as Peace Corps volunteer in Kota Kinabalu, Sabah. Organized summer study camp for Sabahan students. (1966-1968)

TEACHING ASSISTANT

Stanford University

Team-taught freshman seminar "Dostoyevski and Camus" (1966).

RELATED WORK:

EDITOR

Harvard Educational Review

Reviewed, selected, and edited manuscripts. Solicited articles and coordinated editorial work as issue editor of special issue on Teachers, Teaching, and Teacher Education (Nov. 1986). Served as book review editor. (1985-1987)

Consultant

American Indian Science and Engineering Society

Reviewed and helped develop curriculum materials for Science of Alcohol Curriculum for American Indians, an 8-year, nationally-funded project. (1992-93)

MINISTER

Harvard/Radcliffe United Ministries, Harvard University

Counseled students, served as campus minister for Society of Friends(Quakers) (1985-1987).

St. John's U.C.C. Church, Woodland, California

Coordinated program for high school students as youth minister(1969-1970).

TUTOR

Dudley House, Harvard College

Counseled undergraduates interested in teaching (1986-1987).

BOARD CHAIRMAN/PRESIDENT

College Park Friends Educational Association, California

Coordinated activities, chaired bimonthly meetings of board of trustees for John Woolman School, a Quaker secondary boarding school in Grass Valley, California (1982-1984); continuing board member (1989-1995).

Chico Peace and Justice Center

Helped organize Chico Peace Center, coordinated activities as chairman of board responsible for oversight of paid coordinator, volunteer staff, office, library, referral services, newsletter; gave presentations in classrooms and at community events (1982-present)

Chico Area Interfaith Council

Served as vice president [2000-2001] and president [2001-2002] of association of faith communities in Chico area; chaired monthly meetings, coordinated events and joint work on a variety of community issues.

Presiding Clerk

College Park Quarterly Meeting

Organized and presided over quarterly meetings of Religious Society of Friends in northern California (1995-1998)

Chico Friends Meeting

Served a number of terms as presiding clerk of local meeting of the Religious Society of Friends

Work Camp Leader

John Woolman School

Organized and led week-long summer work camps as service project assisting Quaker high school (1982-present).

ALTERNATIVE SCHOOL ORGANIZER

Open Classroom Program, Chico Public Schools, Chico, California

Helped establish alternative elementary program within public school system; served as chairperson of parent advisory board, and on teacher and principal selection committees (1974-1977).

COMMUNITY ORGANIZER

East Palo Alto, California

Organized community support of incorporation plan, ran interracial day camp, in low income community (1966).

INTERESTS Choral singing, folk guitar, housebuilding, international folk dancing, sports.

REFERENCES Available on request