Shanghai University, Shanghai, China

Year and Semester Programs

Located in a global business center, Shanghai University is a comprehensive institution that offers students a chance to study Chinese Language and Culture, or International Business courses in English. Established in 1922 the university has nearly 40,000 students. Advanced Mandarin students may enroll in their respective field of study.

* Final acceptance is based on host university approval.

---

ELIGIBILITY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class Level</th>
<th>GPA</th>
<th>Language Prerequisites</th>
<th>Language Of Instruction</th>
<th>Special Requirements</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jr. Sr.</td>
<td>2.75</td>
<td>4+ Semesters of Mandarin</td>
<td>Mandarin &amp; English</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

FINANCIAL AID

Aid that is applicable to this program.

- Pell Grant
- Cal Grant
- University Grant
- Loan

HOUSING

Possible housing options available.

- Dorms
- Homestay
- Private (Apt/House)

COST COMPARISON

CSU Chico Average: $22,496

- Same as CSU, Chico tuition
- CSU Travel Insurance $250/sem.
- $105 - 325 per month
- $135 - 300 per month
- $350 per month
- $1500 Average

---

Office of International Education & Study Abroad • California State University, Chico
SSC 440 • 530.898.5415 • www.csuchico.edu/studyabroad