

APPLY FOR SUMMER 2024

The UCLA Public Health Scholars Training Program is an intensive 8-week summer program for undergraduate students and recent graduates to explore the field of public health

Why Apply

- ✓ Gain public health knowledge
- ✓ Develop your professional skills
- ✓ Participate in health equity initiatives
- ✓ Connect with Los Angeles
- ✓ Create long-lasting relationships

- No GPA requirement
- $4,000 stipend + housing, partial meal plan, and metro tap card provided by the program

How to Apply

- Scan this QR code to visit our website
- Applications open Nov 1 - Jan 31
- Application criteria listed on website

Eligibility Criteria

Education - must meet ONE

- Undergrad entering year 3 or above
- Transfer or community college graduate
- Recent Grad from Fall 2023-Spring 2024 who hasn't enrolled in a grad program

Additional - must meet ALL

1. U.S. Citizen, National or Resident (DACA eligible)
2. Authorized to work in the U.S.
3. Attend U.S. or U.S. territory institution

Summer 2024 Program: June 23 - August 17