James Tyler, Online Learning Librarian

Peter DiFalco, Instructional Technology Consultant (TLP)

Where and When:

MLIB 226, April 25, 2008 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon

What will be covered?

James Tyler will demonstrate how to find free Internet images and will talk about copyright concerns. He will briefly discuss the copyright issues, Fair Use, Classroom exemption (Section 110(1), the Teach Act (Section 110(2), Flickr, and Creative Commons licenses. He will show the following sources:

- Search Engines
- Public Domain
- CSU, Chico
- Commercial

Peter DiFalco will show you how to add the images or and icons to your Vista course section, PowerPoint presentations, and Web sites. He will answer the following questions.

- What software do you use to resize and edit images
- Where to get software: Adobe Fireworks/Photoshop/ Microsoft's free image resizer
- Where to find icons
- How to work with icons

Each attendant is asked to submit one question or request for an image, and describe their departmental interests with digital images. Email ahead of time to jtyler@csuchico.edu.
