College of Agriculture

Course Id	Fresh	Soph	Juniors	Senior	Grads	Total	All Unmet Demand*
Totals	19	29	21	24	3	96	233

*Note: The column "Total Demand" is the sum of all student demand for this course regardless of the number of units a student now holds. Also note that the total for this column will not necessarily match the college total on the "All Unmet Demand" summary. This is because the entire unmet demand for some courses consists of students who now have more than 13 units and this report only includes courses for which some of the unmet demand consists of students having 13 or fewer units.

*Note: The column "Total Demand" is the sum of all student demand for this course regardless of the number of units a student now holds. Also note that the total for this column will not necessarily match the college total on the "All Unmet Demand" summary. This is because the entire unmet demand for some courses consists of students who now have more than 13 units and this report only includes courses for which some of the unmet demand consists of students having 13 or fewer units.

Fall 2001 Unmet Student Demand by Course - Students with 13 or Fewer Units

College of Communication and Education

Course Id	Fresh	Soph	Juniors	Senior	Grads	Total	All Unmet Demand*

*Note: The column "Total Demand" is the sum of all student demand for this course regardless of the number of units a student now holds. Also note that the total for this column will not necessarily match the college total on the "All Unmet Demand" summary. This is because the entire unmet demand for some courses consists of students who now have more than 13 units and this report only includes courses for which some of the unmet demand consists of students having 13 or fewer units.

*Note: The column "Total Demand" is the sum of all student demand for this course regardless of the number of units a student now holds. Also note that the total for this column will not necessarily match the college total on the "All Unmet Demand" summary. This is because the entire unmet demand for some courses consists of students who now have more than 13 units and this report only includes courses for which some of the unmet demand consists of students having 13 or fewer units.

*Note: The column "Total Demand" is the sum of all student demand for this course regardless of the number of units a student now holds. Also note that the total for this column will not necessarily match the college total on the "All Unmet Demand" summary. This is because the entire unmet demand for some courses consists of students who now have more than 13 units and this report only includes courses for which some of the unmet demand consists of students having 13 or fewer units.
