3. Business
   a. The committee discussed when their meetings will be held during the summer. The committee decided to keep the monthly meeting time the same, the second Thursday of each month, from 1:30pm-2:30pm.
   b. Luann Manss gave an update on the Campus Conservation Committee Freecycle@Work contest. The CCC is hosting a contest in which a prize will be awarded to the 50th, 75th, 100th and 150th person to create a Freecycle@Work account before May 18. A campus announcement, about the contest, is being sent out each week during the contest. In addition, Luann will be visiting each of the offices on campus to promote the program and the contest. There are currently 31 users signed up for Freecycle@Work.
   c. The committee discussed possible new recommendations.

4. Announcements - None
