Global Focus
Through the provision of a meaningful and purposeful global education and opportunities for international experiences, the College of Business produces graduates with the technical abilities, interpersonal skills, and broad perspectives that leaders must possess to lead effectively in the global business environment of the twenty-first century.

Values-Based Leadership
All business majors are exposed to a rigorous curriculum that includes exposure to the challenges of ethical leadership. Through lectures, classroom assignments, film viewings, and lunch-time discussions, students learn from accomplished business executives about the rise to power and inevitable fall of those who have succumbed to corporate pressure and greed.

The Major in Business Information Systems
The first university in California to establish a Business Information Systems major, the College of Business developed this degree program to provide students with “next generation” curriculum that prepares them for today’s technologically sophisticated global business environment. This major meets the growing job demands for professional consultants, business process analysts, IT infrastructure specialists, SAP functional analysts, and relationship management specialists.

Declaring a Business Administration Major

Students who declared a Business Administration major prior to fall 2005, whether at a community college or at CSU, Chico, may remain with the previous catalog or choose the current one. You must follow the complete set of course requirements from whichever catalog you choose. See your advisor for help with this decision.

The program requires a Prerequisite Core. These classes (BADM 101, BADM 103 or MATH 105, ACCT 201, ACCT 202, ECON 102, ECON 103, and MATH 107) must be completed with a grade of C or better in each class, regardless of when you declared the major. If you receive a C- or lower in one of the prerequisite core classes, you must repeat it. Students wishing to major in business must complete MATH 107 and BADM 103 or MATH 105 at least one semester before declaring a business major. Transfer students may, at the discretion of the Business Undergraduate Advising Office, be granted a one-semester grace period to allow for grades in equivalent courses to arrive.

You will want to read more about our programs at the College of Business home pages on the Web. There you can read special advising information for first-year and transfer students. You can link to home pages for advisors and faculty members. Begin with the College of Business home page (http://www.csuchico.edu/cob/).

If you have any questions about your major or if you want a list of approved transfer equivalents, write, visit, e-mail, or call:

The Bachelor of Science in Business Administration

Total Course Requirements for the Bachelor’s Degree: 120 units
See “Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree” in the University Catalog for complete details on general degree requirements. A minimum of 40 units, including those required for the major, must be upper division.

A suggested Major Academic Plan (MAP) has been prepared to help students meet all graduation requirements within four years. Please request a plan from your major advisor or view it and other current advising information at http://em.csuchico.edu/aap/ProgramSearch.

General Education Requirements: 48 units
See “General Education Requirements” in the University Catalog and the Class Schedule for the most current information on General Education Requirements and course offerings. The course requirements marked below with an asterisk (*) may also be applied toward General Education.

Diversity Course Requirements: 6 units
See “Diversity Requirement” in the University Catalog. Most courses taken to satisfy these requirements may also apply to General Education.

U.S. History, Constitution, and American Ideals: 6 units
See “U.S. History, Constitution, and American Ideals” under “Bachelor’s Degree Requirements”. This requirement is normally fulfilled by completing HIST 130 and POLS 153 or approved equivalents. Courses used to satisfy this requirement do not apply to General Education.

Literacy Requirement:
See “Mathematics and Writing Requirements” in the University Catalog. Writing proficiency in the major is a graduation requirement and may be demonstrated through satisfactory completion of a course in your major which has been designated as the Writing Proficiency (WP) course for the semester in which you take the course. Students who earn below a C- are required to repeat the course and earn a C- or better to receive WP credit. See the Class Schedule for the designated WP courses for each semester. You must pass ENGL 130 (or its equivalent) with a C- or better before you may register for a WP course.

Advising Requirement:
Advising is mandatory for all Business Administration majors. Consult the Business Undergraduate Advising Office for information about your program and for a course plan which will enable you to complete your BS in Business Administration in four years.

Course Requirements for the Major: 72-75 units
Completion of the following courses, or their approved transfer equivalents, are required of all candidates for this degree. Additional required courses, depending upon the selected option or advising pattern, are outlined following the major core program requirements.

Electives Requirement:
To complete the total units required for the bachelor’s degree, select additional elective courses from the total University offerings. You should consult with an advisor regarding the selection of courses which will provide breadth to your University experience and possibly apply to a supportive second major or minor.

Grading Requirement:
All courses taken to fulfill major course requirements must be taken for a letter grade except those courses specified by the department as Credit/No Credit grading only.

Advising Requirement:
Advising is mandatory for all majors in this degree program. Consult your undergraduate advisor for specific information.

Consult the Office of the Coordinator of Undergraduate Programs (GLNN 325) for specifics.

Students interested in careers related to Professional Sales should contact the Undergraduate Business Advising Office.

Honors in the Major
Honors in the Major is a program of independent work in your major. It requires 6 units of honors course work completed over two semesters. The Honors in the Major program allows you to work closely with a faculty mentor in your area of interest on an original performance or research project. This year-long collaboration allows you to work in your field at a professional level and culminates in a public presentation of your work. Students sometimes take their projects beyond the University for submission in professional journals, presentation at conferences, or academic competition. Such experience is valuable for graduate school and professional life. Your honors work will be recognized at your graduation, on your permanent transcripts, and on your diploma. It is often accompanied by letters of commendation from your mentor in the department or the department chair.

Some common features of Honors in the Major program are:
1. You must take 6 units of Honors in the Major course work. All 6 units are honors classes (marked by a suffix of H), and at least 3 of these units are independent study (399H, 499H, 599H) as specified by your department. You must complete each class with a minimum grade of B.
2. You must have completed 9 units of upper-division course work or 21 overall units in your major before you can be admitted to Honors in the Major. Check the requirements for your major carefully, as there may be specific courses that must be included in these units.
3. Your cumulative GPA should be at least 3.5 or within the top 5% of majors in your department.
4. Your GPA in your major should be at least 3.5 or within the top 5% of majors in your department.
5. Most students apply for or are invited to participate in Honors in the Major during the second semester of their junior year. Then they complete the 6 units of course work over the two semesters of their senior year.
6. Your honors work culminates with a public presentation of your honors project.

While Honors in the Major is part of the Honors Program, each department administers its own program. Please contact your major department or major advisor to apply.

Honors in Business
Students may apply for admission to the Honors in the Major Program in the College of Business through any of the options offered. An honors student must meet all the requirements of the chosen option with a grade point average that places him or her in the top five percent of students enrolled within the option or must have at least a 3.5 grade point average in the business major. Each honors student must also complete 6 units of the honors course in his or her option with a grade of B or better. These units must result in a research paper which is publicly presented. See BADM 499H and courses numbered 499H in each option of the course offerings section. Please consult your department for specific information.

Note:
- No more than 3 units of MKTG 389, MKTG 391, or MKTG 399 may be used to meet major requirements. MKTG 498 must be taken for 3 units.
Declarating a Business Information Systems Major
Students who declared a Business Information Systems major prior to fall 2005, whether at a community college or at CSU, Chico, may continue with the previous catalog or choose the current one. You must follow the complete set of course requirements from whichever catalog you choose. See your advisor for help with this decision.

To declare a BSIS major, you must first complete MATH 107, MATH 108/ BADM 103, and ENGL 130 with a verified grade of C- or higher in each course. If you receive a C- or lower in one of the lower-division core classes, you must repeat it. The first three lower-division core classes that students should complete are MATH 107, MATH 108/BADM 103, and ENGL 130. See your advisor for details.

You will want to read more about our program at the College of Business home pages on the Web. There you can read special advising information for first-year and transfer students. You can find out what classes you should be taking. You can link to home pages for advisors and faculty members. Begin with the College of Business home page (http://www.csuchico.edu/cob/).

If you have any questions about your major or if you want a list of approved transfer equivalents, write, visit, e-mail, or call:

The Bachelor of Science in Business Information Systems
This program was approved and offered for the first time in fall 2003. It is designed as a four-year alternative to Business Administration.

Total Course Requirements for the Bachelor’s Degree: 128 units
See “Requirements for the Bachelor’s Degree” in the University Catalog for complete details on general degree requirements. A minimum of 40 units, including those required for the major, must be upper division.

A suggested Major Academic Plan (MAP) has been prepared to help students meet all graduation requirements within four years. Please request a plan from your major advisor or view it and other current advising information at http://em.csuchico.edu/aap/ProgramSearch.

General Education Requirements: 48 units
See “General Education Requirements” in the University Catalog and the Class Schedule for the most current information on General Education Requirements and course offerings. The course requirements marked below with an asterisk (*) may also be applied toward General Education.

Diversity Course Requirements: 6 units
See “Diversity Requirement” in the University Catalog. Most courses taken to satisfy these requirements may also apply to General Education.

U.S. History, Constitution, and American Ideals: 6 units
See “U.S. History, Constitution, and American Ideals” under “Bachelor’s Degree Requirements”. This requirement is normally fulfilled by completing HIST 130 and POLS 155 or approved equivalents. Courses used to satisfy this requirement do not apply to General Education.

Literacy Requirement:
See “Mathematics and Writing Requirements” in the University Catalog. Writing proficiency in the major is a graduation requirement and may be demonstrated through satisfactory completion of a course in your major which has been designated as the Writing Proficiency (WP) course for the semester in which you take the course. Students who earn below a C- are required to repeat the course and earn a C- or better to receive WP credit.
See the Class Schedule for the designated WP courses for each semester. You must pass ENGL 130 (or its equivalent) with a C- or better before you may register for a WP course.

Course Requirements for the Major: 81-87 units
Completion of the following courses, or their approved transfer equivalents, are required of all candidates for this degree. Additional required courses, depending upon the selected option or advising pattern, are outlined following the major core program requirements.

Pre-Business Information Systems Major
Pre-business information students achieve Business Information Systems status upon completion of MATH 107 and BADM 103 or MATH 105 and ENGL 130 with a grade of C- or better.

Electives Requirement:

To complete the total units required for the bachelor's degree, select additional elective courses from the total University offerings. You should consult with an advisor regarding the selection of courses which will provide breadth to your University experience and possibly apply to a supportive second major or minor.

Grading Requirement:

All courses taken to fulfill major course requirements must be taken for a letter grade except those courses specified by the department at Credit/No Credit grading only.

Advising Requirement:

Advising is mandatory for all majors in this degree program. Consult your undergraduate advisor for specific information.

Consult the Undergraduate Advising Office (Glenn 323) for specifics.

Honors in the Major

Honors in the Major is a program of independent work in your major. It requires 6 units of honors course work completed over two semesters. The Honors in the Major program allows you to work closely with a faculty mentor in your area of interest on an original performance or research project. This year-long collaboration allows you to work in your field at a professional level and culminates in a public presentation of your work. Students sometimes take their projects beyond the University for submission in professional journals, presentation at conferences, or academic competition. Such experience is valuable for graduate school and professional life. Your honors work will be recognized at your graduation, on your permanent transcripts, and on your diploma. It is often accompanied by letters of commendation from your mentor in the department or the department chair.

Some common features of Honors in the Major program are:
1. You must take 6 units of Honors in the Major course work. All 6 units are honors classes (marked by a suffix of H), and at least 3 of these units are independent study (399H, 499H, 599H) as specified by your department. You must complete each class with a minimum grade of B.
2. You must have completed 9 units of upper-division course work or 21 overall units in your major before you can be admitted to Honors in the Major. Check the requirements for your major carefully, as there may be specific courses that must be included in these units.
3. Your cumulative GPA should be at least 3.5 or within the top 5% of majors in your department.
4. Your GPA in your major should be at least 3.5 or within the top 5% of majors in your department.
5. Most students apply for or are invited to participate in Honors in the Major during the second semester of their junior year. Then they complete the 6 units of course work over the two semesters of their senior year.
6. Your honors work culminates with a public presentation of your honors project.
Business Administration

While Honors in the Major is part of the Honors Program, each department administers its own program. Please contact your major department or major advisor to apply.

Honors in Business

Students may apply for admission to the Honors in the Major Program in the College of Business through any of the options offered. An honors student must meet all the requirements of the chosen option with a grade point average that places him or her in the top five percent of students enrolled within the option or must have at least a 3.5 grade point average in the business major. Each honors student must also complete 6 units of the honors courses in his or her option with a grade of B or better. These units must result in a research paper which is publicly presented. See BADM 499H and courses numbered 499H in each option of the course offerings section. Please consult your department for specific information.

The Master of Business Administration
The goal of the MBA program is to prepare its participants for challenging managerial positions in ever-changing international working environments. To accomplish this, the program provides its participants with the knowledge and skills necessary for effective managerial decision-making, the flexibility to pursue a general or moderately specialized business curriculum, and a basis for continued personal and professional growth. The program is designed for those with undergraduate degrees in any major.

Course Requirements for the Master's Degree: 30 units
Continuous enrollment is required. A maximum of 9 semester units of transfer and/or CSU Chico Open University course work may be applied toward the degree.

Graduate Time Limit:
All requirements for the degree are to be completed within five years of the end of the semester of enrollment in the oldest course applied toward the degree. See “Graduate Education” in the University Catalog for complete details on general degree requirements.

Prerequisites to Graduate Study in Business:
Enrollment in graduate (600-level) MBA courses presupposes completion of prerequisite courses covering the common body of knowledge in business, including:

Working knowledge of microcomputer applications: word processor, spreadsheet, and data base management is required.

Students with recent baccalaureates in business normally have met all prerequisites for graduate study in business. The Office of the Business Graduate Coordinator determines prerequisite completion. Upon admission to the program, such students usually begin taking the 30 units of required and elective courses for the MBA.

Students with a minor in Business Administration may have completed most of the prerequisite requirements for graduate study in business. Consult the Office of the Graduate Coordinator to determine whether unmet prerequisites remain.

Students with a non-business baccalaureate are also encouraged to consider pursuing an MBA. Often, they have met some of the prerequisite requirements within their undergraduate course work. Consult the Office of the Graduate Coordinator to determine whether unmet prerequisites remain.

There are two basic ways to complete prerequisites covering the common body of knowledge in business. Students who otherwise meet entrance requirements may be “conditionally classified” in the MBA program while they take prerequisite courses at California State University, Chico. Alternatively, students may choose to complete most or all of the prerequisites, here or elsewhere, prior to admission to the program. Consult the Office of the Graduate Coordinator to determine which option will best meet your needs and which prerequisites you have already completed.

Prerequisites for Admission to Conditionally Classified Status:
1. Satisfactory grade point average as specified in “Admission to Master’s Degree Programs” in the University Catalog.
2. Approval by the department and the Office of Graduate Studies.

The goal of the Graduate Admission Committee is to select candidates who will become effective managers in private and public organizations. Accordingly, applicants are evaluated on intellectual ability, demonstrated managerial ability and potential, and personal characteristics conducive to academic and professional success, such as maturity, motivation, interpersonal skills, leadership, and breadth of experience.

In its deliberations, the Admissions Committee looks for responsible academic performance, for good Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) or Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores, and for qualities of personal development which promise career success. Specifically, the Committee reviews:

A. The motivation to pursue graduate study in business and the potential to achieve a management position as evidenced in a written statement of purpose;
B. Collegiate-level scholastic achievements (the entire undergraduate record, with particular emphasis on junior and senior years, and graduate record, if any, is examined for content and course grades.);
C. Aptitude for business graduate education, as indicated by scores on the GMAT or GRE;
D. The personal characteristics of the candidate which are conducive to academic and professional success, such as maturity, motivation, interpersonal skills, leadership, and breadth of experience, as reported in the Letters of Recommendation.

The Admission Committee will operate in a manner consistent with and supportive of the ideals and goals of equal access and equal opportunity.

Prerequisites for Admission to Classified Status:
Students must satisfy the “common body of knowledge” prerequisites for graduate study in business identified above.

Advancement to Candidacy:
In addition to any requirements listed above:
1. Classified graduate standing and completion at the University of at least 9 units of the proposed graduate program.
2. Development of an approved program in consultation with the Graduate Coordinator.

Requirements for the Master of Business Administration:
Completion of all requirements as established by the College of Business Graduate Committee, the Graduate Coordinator, and the Office of Graduate Studies to include:
1. Completion of an approved program consisting of 30 units of course work as indicated below.
2. Completion and final approval of a thesis, a professional paper, or simulation mini-thesis as specified by the student’s Graduate Advisory Committee.
3. Approval by the College of Business Graduate Committee and the Graduate Coordinators Committee on behalf of the faculty of the University.

Graduate Requirement in Writing Proficiency:

Writing proficiency is a graduation requirement. All MBA students will be required to demonstrate their writing competency. Early on in their program of study, students should check with the Graduate Office in the College of Business in order to establish how this requirement will be met. Specific writing proficiency for the MBA may be demonstrated through successful completion of BADM 638.

Graduate Grading Requirements:

All courses in the major (with the exceptions of Independent Study - 697, Comprehensive Examination - 696, Master's Project - 699P, and Master's Thesis - 699T) must be taken for a letter grade, except those courses specified by the department as ABC/No Credit (400/500-level courses), AB/No Credit (600-level courses), or Credit/No Credit grading only. A maximum of 10 units combined of ABC/No Credit, AB/No Credit, and Credit/No Credit grades may be used on the approved program (including 697, 699P, 699T and courses outside the major). While grading standards are determined by individual programs and instructors, it is also the policy of the University that unsatisfactory grades may be given when work fails to reflect achievement of the high standards, including high writing standards, expected of students pursuing graduate study.

Students must maintain a minimum 3.0 grade point average in each of the following three categories: all course work taken at any accredited institution subsequent to admission to the master's program; all course work taken at CSU, Chico subsequent to admission to the program; and all courses on the approved master's degree program.

Graduate Advising Requirement:

Advising is mandatory each semester for all MBA students. Consult the Graduate Coordinator in the College of Business Graduate Office for specifics.

Prerequisites: MGMT 444 or faculty permission.
Offers students training in managing a portfolio of projects. Special attention is given to the role of business strategy in designing effective control systems and to tools for dealing with common, complex project syndromes. (020599)

MGMT 489A Internship in Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management 3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: MGMT 451, faculty permission.
Students must register directly with a supervising faculty member. For students who wish to gain practical work experience with participating organizations, this course enables students to apply entrepreneurship coursework in an existing start-up or small business. See internship advisor for eligibility requirements, performance requirements, assignments, and methods of evaluation prior to undertaking the internship. For programs offered by the Department of Management, this course may be applied only once for 3 units. Credit/no credit grading only. (020582)

MGMT 489B Practicum in Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management 3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: MGMT 451, faculty permission.
Students must register directly with a supervising faculty member. The purpose of the course is to offer students the opportunity to learn experientially about the practices, challenges, and decision-making processes faced in launching and/or managing a new venture. See practicum advisor for eligibility requirements, performance requirements, assignments, and methods of evaluation prior to undertaking the practicum. For programs offered by the Department of Management, this course may be applied only once for 3 units. Credit/no credit grading only. (020583)

MGMT 498 Special Topics in Management 1.0–3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: Senior standing.
This course is for special topics offered for 1.0-3.0 units. Typically the topic is offered on a one-time-only basis and may vary from term to term and be different for different sections. See the Class Schedule for the specific topic being offered. For advanced students who wish to investigate business problems in specialized areas. Application of research methods. (005737)

MGMT 499H Honors in Management 3.0 Inquire
Prerequisites: Faculty permission.
This 3-unit course consists of a comprehensive research study and paper dealing with business policy and strategy, and the integrative and international aspects of business operations, especially as they pertain to the fields of management, human resource management, or strategic management. A final written report and a public presentation of findings are both requirements of this course. Business Honors Program students must receive at least a B in this course for Honors credit. Students seeking “Honors in the Major” will enroll in this course for two semesters. MGMT 499H for Business Administration majors with an Option in Management or Human Resource Management who are seeking Honors in the Major. You may take this course more than once for a maximum of 6.0 units. (005739)

MGMT 598 Special Topics in Management 1.0–3.0 Fa/Spr
This course is for special topics offered for 1.0-3.0 units. Typically the topic is offered on a one-time-only basis and may vary from term to term and be different for different sections. See the Class Schedule for the specific topic being offered. For advanced students who wish to investigate business problems in specialized areas. Application of research methods. (020394)

MGMT 620 Advanced Contemporary Problems in Organizational Psychology 3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: Classified MBA student.
Study of current theory and research in organizational behavior and organizational design, emphasizing managerial applications. Includes ethical, environmental, technological, and international considerations. (005743)

This course is a graduate-level independent study offered for 1.0-4.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. You may take this course more than once for a maximum of 6.0 units. (005756)
MGMT 699T Master’s Thesis 1.0–3.0 Fa/Spr
This course is offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. You may take this course more than once for a maximum of 6.0 units. (005761)

Management Information Systems

Course Offerings

MINS 235 Database Design 3.0 Fa/Spr
Study of fundamental database design principles and techniques, including data modeling with Entity-Relationship diagrams and normalization. Study of SQL (Structured Query Language) database management systems capabilities. Study of the relational data model and relational operations. Study of database security mechanisms. Introduction to PL/SQL. Application of concepts and techniques to practical business scenarios. (005814)

MINS 245 Data Communications and Networking 3.0 Fa/Spr
An introduction to data communications and local area networks. This course provides a background in standards and protocols used in communications and their functions within a business information system environment. The class combines lectures, writing assignments, group work, and class discussion to develop a fundamental knowledge of data communications and its importance to the business information systems environment. (005815)

MINS 301 Corporate Technology Integration 3.0 Fa/Spr
This course introduces students to the concept of information systems as the application of technical resources to support organizational processes. Given this foundation, students build an integrative, process-oriented understanding of information systems and their deployment, management, and use within distributed and global organizations. Projects focus on introductory enterprise systems, fundamentals of database systems, and basic Web programming. For this course, students are expected to have demonstrated proficiency in the use of microcomputers and office automation software including word processing, spreadsheets, and desktop databases. A proficiency exam is given during the first week of each semester and students are encouraged to take this exam in advance of the semester they intend to enroll in the class. Students who lack such knowledge may wish to enroll in appropriate undergraduate courses prior to attempting this course. This course is designed for BADM majors. Students who have successfully completed two or more of the following courses are not eligible to take this course: BSIS 105 or CSCI 101, CSCI 111 or MINS 325, MINS 235, MINS 245. (005770)

MINS 325 Business Programming 3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: BSIS 301 or MINS 301. Introduction to the basic problem-solving skills needed to create and maintain business-oriented software. This course provides an overview of business information systems, their use in business contexts, and object-oriented design of applications. Coverage includes a survey of basic data structures and the standard algorithms used to manipulate and work with them. Students are expected to build and test a number of programs using an integrated development environment. 1.0 hours activity, 3.0 hours discussion. (005819)

MINS 335 Database Application Development 3.0 Fa/Spr

MINS 336 Introduction to E-Business 3.0 Inquire
Prerequisites: MINS 350. An introduction to E-Business systems including Intranets, Extranets, and Web-based E-Commerce applications. Topics include a review of Internet technologies and their history; how E-Business systems differ from traditional systems; benefits and threats caused by these systems; and analysis and design issues unique to E-Business systems. Students are required to perform environmental scanning of current trends, threats, and opportunities involving E-Business technological categories, applications, and tools beyond what has been learned in other courses. Professional activity is also required. (005826)

MINS 345 Distributed Systems Management 3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: BSIS 301, MINS 245. An in-depth analysis of current manageral issues related to business data communications, networks, and distributed processing. The topics covered in this course directly impact the analysis, design, and implementation of management information systems for both private organizations and government. Mainstream and emerging standards, products, and protocols are examined as well as an in-depth study of the Internet Protocol. (005829)

MINS 350 Business Systems Analysis 3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: MINS 235. Concurrent enrollment in or prior completion of ENGL 230 (for BSIS majors). An in-depth examination of tools, techniques, and processes used to support the systems analysis portion of the systems development life cycle. Emphasis is given to requirements gathering, gap-fit analysis, development of the business case for systems development projects, as well as tools and techniques that plan, identify, model and communicate conceptual systems to both end users and programmers. Both case studies and real projects are used to develop hands-on experience with conducting business analysis studies from object, data, and process perspectives. (005818)

MINS 351 Simulation Laboratory in Management Information Systems 1.0 Fa/Spr
Laboratory experience with management simulation programs. The student interacts with a simulated business environment via computer facilities or other laboratory situations. 2.0 hours activity. You may take this course more than once for a maximum of 6.0 units. Credit/no credit grading only. (005823)

MINS 389 Internship and Cooperative Education 1.0–3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: Senior standing, faculty permission. This course is an internship offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. For students who wish to gain practical work experience with participating firms/organizations. This course enables a student to study policy, control, and decision-making in a specialized work environment. See advisor for student's performance requirements, assignments, and methods of evaluation prior to undertaking the internship. You may take this course more than once for a maximum of 15.0 units. Credit/no credit grading only. (005822)

MINS 399 Special Problems 1.0–3.0 Fa/Spr
This course is an independent study of special problems offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. Students registering for this course should prepare a project proposal to be discussed with their faculty advisor before enrolling in the course. You may take this course more than once for a maximum of 6.0 units. Credit/ no credit grading only. (005825)

MINS 425 Intermediate Business Programming 3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: CSCI 111 or MINS 325 and BSIS 301 or MINS 301. This course provides students with an in-depth exposure to business information systems and their applications. The course exposes students to issues, problems, and strategies for developing advanced business applications using object-oriented methodology. Emphasis is placed on projects that integrate diverse systems in order to manage business information. Students are expected to design, implement, and test non-trivial business applications in a small team environment. (005820)

MINS 426 Business Intelligence and Data Warehousing: Design and Development 3.0 Spring
Prerequisites: MINS 235, MINS 350; ACCT 521 or BSIS 496 (enrollment may be concurrent). The course explores the fundamentals of Business Intelligence and Data Warehouse systems from the perspective of the developer. Students demonstrate a working knowledge of OLAP and data warehouse design, development, and performance. (020506)

MINS 450 Business Systems Design 3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: BSIS 444, MINS 325, MINS 350. Developing and documenting information-processing requirements. Record layout design and determination of primary and alternate file access paths. Data integrity and security considerations. Development of system test requirements and user documentation. (005827)

MINS 452 Decision Support Software 3.0 Inquire
Prerequisites: MINS 335. Design and development of decision support systems. Examples from marketing, finance, accounting, human resources management, and production areas of organizations. Analysis of the impact of such developments as artificial intelligence, expert systems, and object-oriented languages, and application generators on the design and development of information systems. (005828)
MINS 495  Management Issues for MIS Professionals  3.0 Inquire
Prerequisites: MINS 450 or concurrent enrollment in MINS 450.
A culminating, integrative course serves to organize the information learned from earlier MINS and business school courses for soon-to-be MINS professionals. Students work together in groups to complete projects and class assignments and to understand key and current information systems topics, including global/international issues. Study emphasizes communicating concepts in a meaningful, businesslike manner. (005831)

MINS 498  Special Topics in Management Information Systems  1.0–3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: Senior standing.
This course is for special topics offered for 1.0–3.0 units. Typically the topic is offered on a one-time-only basis and may vary from term to term and be different for different sections. See the Class Schedule for the specific topic being offered. For advanced students who wish to investigate business problems in specialized areas. Application of research methods. (005839)

MINS 499H  Honors Seminar in Management Information Systems  3.0 Fa/Spr

This 3-unit course consists of a comprehensive research study and paper dealing with business policy and strategy and the integrative and international aspects of business operations, especially as they pertain to the fields of management information systems. A final written report and a public presentation of findings are both requirements of this course. Business Honors Program students must earn at least a B in this course in order to receive honors credit. Students completing Honors in the Major will enroll in this course for two semesters. You may take this course more than once for a maximum of 6.0 units. (005841)

MINS 522  Enterprise Resource Planning: Systems Administration  3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in or prior completion of MINS 345 and instructor permission.
This course focuses on advanced system support issues related to an Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system that is used in global organizations. Students learn how to provide basic systems administration support of the operating system, data management, and application system software levels within a large ERP system used to support a global organization with multiple companies. Concepts, issues, current trends, decision making, and troubleshooting are addressed through a multi-layered view of the system. 4.0 hours; 1.0 hours discussion. (005835)

MINS 535  Database Administration  3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: MINS 335 and instructor permission.
Study of the tasks and responsibilities of the database administrator, including configuring memory and disk space, establishing security, providing for backup and recovery, performance monitoring and tuning, and setting up client-server network capabilities. Study of advanced database design principles and techniques. Study of advanced SQL (Structured Query Language) and database management system capabilities. Application of concepts and techniques to practical database system administration environment in business. You may take this course more than once for a maximum of 6.0 units. (005833)

MINS 536  Security and Privacy Issues in Information Technology  3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: MINS 245.
This course covers a broad range of information security topics. The course theme is the protection of information resources from disruption, destruction, or disaster as well as unauthorized access. The course covers controls designed to (1) protect information assets, (2) detect the loss of information, and (3) correct information loss situations. Students study the use of authentication and authorization systems, firewalls, encryption systems, redundant disk arrays, and other tools designed to prevent loss of information. Students also study intrusion detection systems, file-fingerprinting tools as well as other methods and controls designed to detect information loss. Finally, students study backup strategies and controls designed to ensure the recovery of lost information. Single-site redundancy as well as the use of backup data centers and redundant communications systems are studied to address the protection of user access to information resources. Risk assessments, security policies, and formal controls processes are used to apply the information learned in the course to real-world scenarios. (005832)

MINS 545  Advanced Distributed Systems Management  3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: MINS 245 and permission of instructor.
This course focuses on topics of planning, design, configuration, implementation, and management of large scale distributed systems. Recent standards, development, issues, methods related to the Internet will be discussed in detail. Students will configure a set of switches and routers to form virtual local area networks and a large scale data network. Students will network different network technologies such as Ethernet, ATM, and Voice over IP. Students will also configure DHCP, DNS, and SNMP. (005830)

MINS 546  E-Commerce and Client Server Computing  3.0 Inquire in Business
Prerequisites: MINS 345, prior completion or concurrent enrollment in MINS 375.
The study of electronic commerce and distributed business systems from the perspective of layered client server models. Development and implementation trends, issues, methods, and tools are discussed with respect to distributing data, application processes, and user services in a variety of global corporate settings. Practical use of Internet and client server technology, such as Oracle, is a major activity in the course, from both server and client design and implementation perspectives. (005834)

MINS 551  Auditing of Information Technology  3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: MINS 350.
Using SAP, this course takes a hands-on approach to attest and assurances services of IT auditors. The course emphasizes the assessment of internal and computer controls in order to identify key risks within accounting cycles. Students gain knowledge of appropriate data processing methods as well as segregation of incompatible IT functions in the system. Within several accounting cycles, students test general, application, and security controls to identify key audit concerns and focus audit effort on “most important assertions.” The assessment of application controls involves a review of input, processing, and output controls. Students assess factors that contribute to IT fraud, identify seeded fraud schemes, and respond to seeded fraud related detected misstatements. Finally, students consider methods of information system maintenance and configuration for stronger controls. (020497)

MINS 626  Business Intelligence and Data Warehousing: Design and Development  3.0 Spring
Prerequisites: MINS 235, BADM 610.
Advanced instruction of Business Intelligence and Data Warehouse Systems from the perspective of the developer. Students demonstrate a working knowledge of OLAP and data warehouse design, development, and performance. (020585)

MINS 645  Advanced Database Topics  3.0 Inquire
Prerequisites: MINS 133.
Logical database design using data modeling and normalization techniques. Development of complex, user-oriented business applications. Responsibilities of the database administrator. Study of multi-user environments and concurrency control, distributed databases, database security. Study of advanced database technology and performance issues. (005843)

MINS 646  Seminar in Business Client Server  3.0 Inquire
Prerequisites: MINS 345, Corequisites: MINS 345.
A seminar of advanced topics and current trends related to the study of distributed business systems from the perspective of the developer. Development and implementation issues, methods, and tools are explored in depth with respect to distributing data, application processes, and user services in a variety of global corporate settings. Practical use of client server technology, such as Oracle, is a major activity in the course from both server and client design and implementation perspectives. (005844)

MINS 650  Business Information Systems Development  3.0 Inquire
Prerequisites: BADM 610.
An in-depth examination of systems development concepts and practice on the leading edge of technology. Some historical perspective provided, but the emphasis is on current process and techniques used to develop on-line business information systems. Includes rapid analysis, prototyping, SAA (Software Applications Architecture) and A/D (Applications Development) cycle concepts and techniques. (005842)

MINS 689  Directed Internship  3.0 Fa/Spr
Prerequisites: MINS 450 or concurrent enrollment in MINS 450.
This course is an internship offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member.
