REED, CAPTAIN E R

From Centennial 1956 Red Bluff Daily News: Son of William Reed, shipowner and Captain

Captain E G Reed, known to old timers as "Cap" Reed (to Calif 1850), landed in Red Bluff in 1852 at the age of 33 and liked it so well he stayed the rest of his life. He was born January 11, 1819.

Captain was a remarkable man in several respects, apart from his yen (years) as a pioneer. A native of Maine he grew up there, a son of a seafaring man William Reed, and so his title of Captain was more than just a fancy handle. Before landing in California on the "Rob Roy" in 1850, Reed had sailed the seven seas. At San Francisco he built the steamer Kennebec (named for a town in Maine) and plied the Sacramento River between Sacramento and Marysville for awhile.

Then he bought the United States Hotel at Sacramento but sold it in the spring of 1852 to come to Red Bluff, then called Red Bluffs.

Here, Captain Reed built the first frame house, and established a hotel at Red Bluff. The hotel became known throughout this part of the state and was a boarding and rooming house for the town's first businessmen and travellers.

In 1870 the old settle built a fine brick house on his ranch just south of town, across Reed's Creek (names for him) and lived there until he died on February 8, 1908.
