Meriam Library Public Use Policy
(Updated 11-2012)

We ask for your cooperation to maintain the Meriam Library as a safe and welcoming space for study, research, thought and collaboration. This policy outlines how CSU, Chico protects the library, library materials and library users. Violations of this policy are considered misconduct. Meriam Library Public Use Policy wording is derived from federal, state and/or municipal law as well as university and library policies.

Enforcement:
• Library staff members will take appropriate steps to enforce these policies. First, users will be asked to comply with the policy. Failure to comply will result in a request for identification and the user will be escorted from the Library. Repeated failure to comply may result in a referral to the University Police or the Office of Student Judicial Affairs. Please refer to “Student Discipline” in the CSU, Chico University Catalog and Title 5 of the California Administrative Code for more information.
• The Library reserves the right to contact the University Police or the Office of Student Judicial Affairs when circumstances require immediate action to protect the library and/or its user.

Unacceptable personal conduct includes:
• Excessive noise is the most common complaint. We ask you to be considerate of others. If you need to hold a conversation on your cell phone, please move to an area where you will not be disturbing other people.
• Abuse of, threat to and/or harassment, physical or verbal, of library patrons or library staff, including challenges to library staff or other patrons requesting compliance with these policies.
• Loitering: wandering from place to place without apparent reason or business and refusing to identify one self and to account for one’s presence when requested.
• Animals: The only animals permitted are those trained to assist persons with disabilities.
• Computer Use: Using library computers to view materials that create an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or learning environment. All computer use is governed by the campus Computer Use Policy (Executive Memorandum 07-01) located at http://www.csuchico.edu/prs/EMs/EM07/em07_01.shtml.
• Disorderly conduct that interferes or has the potential to interfere with the library environment.
• Weapons of any kind.
• Sleeping beyond the usual short (upright) study induced nap.
• Tobacco use in any form including smokeless tobacco.

Food and Drink policies:
• Patrons should eat and drink responsibly. Drink containers should have covers. The delivery of food to the library is not permitted (library-authorized events excepted).
• Please dispose of your trash and recyclables and clean up spills, crumbs, or sticky tables. If you experience a spill that you cannot adequately address, please notify somebody at the Reference or Circulation/Reserve Desks.
• Eating and drinking are not permitted in Special Collections or in the Student Computing lab.
Unacceptable building use policies include:

- Being in an unauthorized area of the library or remaining in the library complex after it is closed or when requested to leave during emergency situations.
- Opening emergency exits or setting off security and/or emergency alarms except in emergency situations.
- Vandalizing or defacing any part of the library building complex, its furniture or equipment.
- Mutilating library materials by marking, underlining, removing pages, bindings, or in any other way defacing or damaging library materials.
- Maliciously accessing, altering, disconnecting, deleting, damaging or destroying any library computer system, network, computer program or data.
- Blocking an aisle with an electrical cord.
- Bicycles are not permitted in the library; skateboards must be placed where they do not create a hazard. Unattended bicycles will be turned over to University Police.
- Willfully blocking or maliciously obstructing any library entrance, exit, lobby area, staircase, aisle or passageway.
- Posting, displaying or distributing any material, including but not limited to, notices, advertisements, brochures, and newspapers without prior approval by the building manager or designee. Unauthorized material will be removed and recycled.
- Photography or any filming of staff or patron(s) within the library requires permission of the person(s) being taped.

Contacts:
University Police: 911
Library Building Management: 4092, 4340, or 5267
Library Circulation/Reserve: 6501 or 6502