Basic Skills

The Commission on Teacher Credentialing requires that students submit verification of basic skills (reading, writing, and math) before being admitted to a credential program. This verification must be submitted with your credential application. Your options for satisfying this requirement depend on the credential you intend to pursue:

- Single Subject
- Multiple Subject
- Education Specialist