

SOCIAL SCIENCE TEACHING AWARD SPRING 2024 – up to $1500

The purpose of this Award is to support Social Science majors at California State University, Chico, for the advancement and promotion of the multi-disciplinary curriculum and training in the social sciences. The award recognizes the value of this interdisciplinary education, which fosters growth of professional competencies, and promotes recognition of the social sciences in public education for Californians.

CSU, Chico retired faculty Jerry and Terry Williams, a retired Northern California educator, and CSU, Chico alumni, are providing funds to recognize a SOSC major who has excelled in the interdisciplinary curriculum and has elected to work in California public education.

Eligibility requirements include:

1. Must be a junior, senior, or post-baccalaureate in Fall 2024;
2. Cumulative GPA of at least 3.0; and
3. Preference will be given to first generation college students.

AWARD APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES
