Reflecting on our experiences and supporting our community

- Key takeaways from recent happenings on campus that can inform our practice
  - Treat them as individuals
  - When possible, connect student with a specific person – not just a department
  - No one method will work for all, assess what will be best for each individual student
  - Want students to focus on their physical/mental well-being
- Helping students to be aware and informed of resources available to them
  - Consider creation of a 1-page document of resources
  - When in doubt, refer them to Academic Advising Programs
  - Please refer to Financial Aid for any monetary concerns
  - Dan Herbert is key resource regarding off-campus housing
- Long-term effects – compassion fatigue, concerns for next fall (housing, emotional effect)
  - List of students affected by fire is confidential, students will need to self-identify
