AH 100 is a hybrid course of on-line internet study and on-site classroom. This is designed to develop students' appreciation of art including observation, articulation, and critical thinking skills through visual arts. Also, this course is designed to fulfill General Education C1 requirements related in following two pathways in the basic study of visual arts, which is to provide student opportunities to develop understanding of human creativity, arts, values, and reasoning. PPT lectures, related readings in the textbook (and its website), films, museum visits, guest speakers and art-making activities will focus upon visual thinking strategy as a communicative tool.

Attendance:

This is a hybrid course and contains a great deal of material that is impossible to make up, so daily attendance is important. Attendance, preparedness and punctuality are considered as a part of your grade.

Regardless of the result of exams, if you missed more than 3 times, your grade will automatically be dropped (e.g. A to B, B to C ...) and "F" for more than 5 time.

Chapter quiz and writing activity will be often randomly required in class. These activities earn a maximum of 5-10 points each and there is no make-up regardless of the reason for your absence.

If you expect to miss a class period due to special conditions (e.g. religious holy days, participation of university events, and so on), let the instructor know within the first two weeks of class for the alternate arrangements for exams and assignments.

 It is the student's responsibility to obtain information and/or notes from the instructor and/or other students if a class is missed.*

Class Behavior:

Any class behavior that distracts or undermines an atmosphere conducive to learning - e.g. chatting, eating, reading other than textbook, sleeping, talking or texting on your cellphone, and leaving class early or arriving late - will not be tolerated. The instructor reserves the right to regard any student behaving this way as absent for the day.

Assessment (Tentative):

50 points: Online Exam 1 (multiple choice, true or false, matching, and/or visual identification)

50 pts.: Online Exam 2 (Same as the above)

50 pts.: Online Exam 3 (Same as the above)

Two higher scores out of three exams will be graded!*

110+ pts.: 13+ on-line chapter review quizzes (5-10 pts. each)

50+ pts.: 5+ selected chapter exercises from the book and other writings

20 pts.: 2 museum visit writings (10 pts. each)

20 pts.: 2 art activities (10 pts. each)

50 pts.: Research paper & related artwork (25 pts. each)

30+ points: + bonus point

(Don't miss exams!: No make-up regardless of the reason (e.g. family emergency)! Exams can be made up only when prearranged and accompanied by a letter from your Dean).

Grading Policy (Tentative): Following is an EXAMPLE of how to calculate your grade!

Total points including all exams and assignments = 2 exams scores (100 point) + Research paper (25 pts.) & Related art project (25 pts.) + 20 review quizzes (175 pts.) + selected chapter exercises and writing assignments (100 pts) = 425 points

[Your actual total pts. (including extra bonus pts.) ÷ 425 pts.] × 4 = Your GP (grade point.) Your final grade should be as follows:

A: 3.75 – 4.00 GP	(Approximately 94% ≤ 100%),
A-: 3.60 - 3.74 GP	(Approximately 90 ≤ 94 %)
B+: 3.45 - 3.59 GP	(Approximately 86 ≤ 90 %)
B: 3.30 - 3.44 GP	(Approximately 82 ≤ 86 %)
B-: 3.20 - 3.29 GP	(Approximately 80 ≤ 82 %)
C+: 3.05 –3.19 GP	(Approximately 76 ≤ 80 %)
