

Assessment Plan – Department of Psychology
MS in Psychology
Marriage and Family Therapy Program

SLO	2017-2018	2018-2019	2019-2020	2021-2022	2022-2023
Students are knowledgeable in the ethical and legal principles relating to the practice of MFT.					X
Students exhibit the personal qualities and skills of an effective therapist.			X
Students work effectively in public mental health settings with diverse client populations taking into account multiple systems of wellness (biopsychosocial model) and the contexts in which they exist.				X
Students gain knowledge in research methods and are able to critically evaluate existing research and/or conduct their own research.					X
Students meet the educational requirements for the Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT) license as specified in California State law (SB-33; Section 4980.36).	X
Students will gain training and experience with case documentation (i.e., progress notes, intake and discharge summaries, and treatment plans) modeled after the formats used by our local mental health agencies.		X			