Good morning CHLD majors and minors. There is a lot happening!

- Gradfest today in BMU 008! If you are planning on participating in the Spring 2019 commencement, today is the first day to register for commencement and order your regalia on line. Get all the details here.
- Don’t miss the Child Development Student Association meeting tonight at CDSA meeting from 5-6 pm in Modoc 120. It’s a social evening; come spend time with old friends and make new ones. CDSA updates, trivia competition, pizza and fun!
- Fall 19 is fast approaching! Registration for continuing students will open on 4.22. Although the schedule is not yet available, here is a draft copy. It’s not too early to organize your schedule and make an advising appointment to make sure all is in order.
- CHLD 392 applications are due on March 29. Applications are available online and in the CHLD office in Modoc 216. If you aren’t sure if you are scheduled to take this class, check your advising notes. If you need another copy of your advising notes, come by the CHLD office.
- CHLD seniors! The count down to commencement has begun! If you are planning on walking in Spring 2019, hopefully you were present when I discussed upcoming events in both sections of CHLD 495 and in CHLD 382. If you missed that day, be sure to make an advising appointment or come by the office to get caught up.
- The Child Development Brunch is scheduled for Saturday, May 4th in Colusa 100. Flyers were distributed during the presentation, extras are available in the CHLD office. Tickets are $10 and will be available after Spring break. All are welcome including friends and family!
- Child Development sashes, which students may elect to wear during commencement, are available for $15. We have some available in the CHLD office and we are printing additional ones which will be ready before commencement. First come, first serve beginning Monday 3.4.19.
